Pack 7 Cub Scouts Kickoff and Registration

MESSAGE FROM FATHER RANDY: As many of our parishioners know, growing up in St. Aloysius Parish and School, one of my fondest memories is having been a Cub Scout in Pack 7 and Boy Scout in Troop 7. I especially remember our Pack's annual Pine Wood Derby. I still have my Pine Wood Derby car. It never won a race. I keep it because it reminds me of my dad, and the hours he spent with me, helping me build it.

Our St. Aloysius Cub Scout Pack 7 will hold its annual kickoff meeting on Sunday, August 27 at 1:00 PM in the "Old Gym". We will register both new and returning Cub Scouts, and will have activities for the kids while the parents learn about the planned events for the school year.

Reminder: our pack is now open to "Family Scouting", which means we are welcoming both boys and girls, grades 1 – 5, to join. By the way, your child need not be a St. Aloysius student, as we welcome any 1st - 5th graders interested in Scouting and in need of a pack. We look forward to seeing you, and especially new families, on Sunday, August 27th, at 1:00 PM

CHILDREN'S CHURCH LOOKING FOR MINISTRY LEADERS AND VOLUNTEERS

Children's Church is a great opportunity for adults and middle school/high school youth to volunteer and help eager youngsters learn the Word of the Lord. Children's Church is an age-appropriate Liturgy of the Word offered for children in PreK through 2nd grade at most 9:00 AM and 11:00 AM Masses. No pre-registration is necessary. All children are welcome and encouraged to attend. Just before the Liturgy of the Word begins for the assembly, the celebrant will invite the children to gather at the altar, receive a blessing, and then follow the catechist from the church to the school cafeteria. During this special time, the volunteers will lead the children through prayers, songs and readings that are simplified for children. The children will learn about the same scripture readings as the rest of the assembly. They will be taught a simplified main message of the readings and are encouraged to share that message with their parents after Mass. The children will return to Mass to sit with their families just before the consecration. Ministry leaders and volunteers are needed to teach the lessons each week. For more information or to volunteer, please contact Tricia Greely, Director of Children Formation at tgreely@staloysiusparish.com or 343-6657.

Our Challenge

Dear friends,

Many people have dreamed of being granted one wish or request. In our first reading this weekend, we hear that it happened to King Solomon. He could have chosen a long life, immense wealth, or military success. Instead, he chose wisdom: "an understanding heart to govern your people and to distinguish right from wrong." He evidenced great wisdom in his choice, and God granted his request. Still writing to the earliest Christians in Rome in this weekend's second reading, St. Paul offers a profound understanding of how God is involved in our lives, especially in our times of suffering. God does not cause everything that happens, but God is at work in whatever happens to us, seeking to use the experience to help us grow more fully into the image of Jesus Christ. Our culture's quantitative values place a premium on "how big" and "how much." Jesus put the emphasis on qualitative values, on quality of life. A true treasure, such as the kingdom of God, is worth sacrificing all the temporary, unfulfilling things the world thinks are so important. A popular television show a number of years ago was called "I've Got a Secret." The guest always had a secret and the panelists worked at guessing what it was. Some secrets remain unknown to us forever. Many of the mysteries of God confound us. Apparently, God is good at keeping secrets. A father questioned his son about an incident involving another boy in the neighborhood. The son asked, "Dad, can you keep a secret?" The father said, "Yes, of course." The son said, "So can I." We speak of God as the One to whom all hearts are open and all secrets are known. God knows all about us and loves us anyway. God's secrets are revealed to us in God's own time. Often God waits until we are mature enough or wise enough to be good stewards of his holy mysteries. Even then, beyond what we know of God and his eternal kingdom, there are mysteries and secrets we cannot begin to fathom.

Have a good week!

Love and prayers,
Father Randy

STEWARDSHIP THROUGH MINISTRY

Our Stewardship Through Ministry campaign is preparing for this year's sign-up weekend on September 23rd and 24th. This year's theme is I AM THE BREAD OF LIFE, and Remain in Me as I remain in you (John 15:4), is this year's bible verse selected to inspire us as we consider our personal stewardship.

Reflecting upon our theme and our verse, we are encouraged to receive Jesus through His Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity, into our body during the celebration of the Holy Eucharist of the Mass. In further reflecting, when we leave Mass after receiving The Bread of Life, John reminds us that we are carrying Jesus with us as he instructed us to Remain in Me as I remain in you. We share Jesus's love with others through our stewardship commitment. Our Parish is blessed to have so many people who strive to share Christ's love using their gifts and abilities from God. We serve best when we minister together as a community of faith. Whether you re-commit to a ministry in which you currently are involved or if you are being called to a new ministry, we invite you to reflect on how you can love and serve others through your chosen ministry.

Ministry Sign Up Weekend September 23rd –24th

Our website provides ministry descriptions, videos and a sign-up form. Visit aloysius.org/ministry. If you'd like more information, contact the parish office at 343-6657.

Jesus calls us to use our gifts and talents through ministry to others. Please take time during the next few weeks to prayerfully discern where Jesus is calling you to serve this year by praying our Stewardship Prayer. Thank you for giving of yourself and sharing The Bread of Life with others.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER:

Take, Lord, and receive
All my liberty,
My memory,
My understanding,
And my entire will,
All I have and call my own.
You have given it all to me.
To you, Lord, I return it.
Everything is yours;
Do with it what you will.
Give me only your love
And your grace;
That is enough for me.
