St. Aloysius Lenten Mission 2022 “Prayer: An Anchor for Our Hope”

Are you searching for an anchor in these challenging times? Through all of life's changes and uncertainties, there is a constant: “God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.” Leaning on the 500-year-old tradition of St. Ignatius of Loyola, this two-night mission with Ignatian-trained spiritual director Becky Eldredge will offer tools and practices to increase our hope and anchor our lives in the unshakable promises of God.

Monday, March 28th & Tuesday, March 29th at 7:00 PM in the church

Our Lenten Mission will also be livestreamed via our website at aloysius.org/livestream.

Featuring Becky Eldredge

Spiritual Director, Retreat Facilitator, Author, Founder of Ignatian Ministries and St. Aloysius parishioner. For more information about our speaker, visit www.beckyeldredge.com.

*Enrichment Credit from the Office of Evangelization and Catechesis is available for those attending both nights of the Parish Mission. Persons seeking credit should sign-in on the sheets available in the back of the church.

Ushers and Ministers of Hospitality

We need welcoming men, women and youth who will assist in seating those attending Mass. Ushers also take up the collection and assist with the procession at the time of Holy Communion. If you would like to serve in this important parish ministry, contact Ken Thevenet, 343-6657, ext. 20 kthevenet@staloysiusparish.com. Our Challenge

Dear friends,

Our Old Testament passage this weekend from the Book of Joshua reflects that when the Israelites set foot in Canaan after their long exodus from Egyptian captivity, they renewed their covenant with God. The manna that had sustained them in the wilderness ceased and they ate the provisions of the land. God had brought them safely home and expected them to embrace the future in joy and faith. While St. Paul is sometimes seen as self-confident to the point of arrogant, we see in our second reading this weekend from his second letter to the earliest Christian community in Corinth, Greece, his sense of unworthiness regarding his calling. He sees himself as “the least of the apostles,” and “unfit” to be an apostle. He attributes his spiritual status to the grace of God, “By the grace of God, I am what I am.” Our gospel story this weekend is often misunderstood. It is not simply about a prodigal son coming home and finding forgiveness, touching as that is. Jesus goes beyond this to point out the failure of Israel to rejoice when salvation comes to sinners. This is a parable of God and two different but needy sons. “Why does God let bad things happen?” People of every time and place have asked. There is not a simple answer, and so we begin to doubt God’s love. But we are seeing love with the immature eyes of a child. Bad things happen to everyone. Our faith is in God’s perfect love, from which nothing can separate us whatever happens. Tragedy and suffering often cause people to seek God. Some of these find spiritual resources for coping with circumstances. Others are disappointed and become disillusioned when God does not change their own circumstances. Faith is often threatened at the very point where it is needed most. The love of God does not produce dependency but freedom. We are dependent on God, to be sure, but God’s love makes it possible for us to be fully integrated and secure in who we are. The father of the prodigal son wanted his son to be free and independent, but also mature, responsible, and loving. This is what God wants.

Have a good week!

Love and prayers,
Father Randy

Broken, Burdened and Blessed

Lent is a season to unearth our brokenness; embracing it as we move toward the cross and the empty tomb. We are reminded to bear one another's burdens, to embrace whatever brokenness resides in our lives and that we are not alone in the burden or our wounds we carry. By allowing God to minister and heal our wounds we are graced with many blessings through experiencing healing and wholeness.

The St. Aloysius Stephen Ministry is sponsoring an Evening of Reflection on Thursday, April 7, 2022, from 6:30 – 7:30 in the church. All are welcome for this special time of prayer and reflection.

WORD OF LIFE

"There is an everyday heroism, made up of gestures of sharing, big or small, which build up an authentic culture of life... Part of this daily heroism is also the silent but effective and eloquent witness of all those 'brave mothers' who devote themselves to their own family without reserve, who suffer in giving birth to their children and who are ready to make any effort, to face any sacrifice, in order to pass on to them the best of themselves'... We thank you, heroic mothers, for your invincible love! We thank you for your intrepid trust in God and in his love. We thank you for the sacrifice of your life" (The Gospel of Life 86).
