Our Challenge

Dear friends:

In our passage this Sunday from the Book of Exodus, Moses prostrates himself. He addresses God as “Adonai” not as Yahweh. This gives heightened emphasis to God’s holiness and transcendence. Moses, knowing that God forgives, asks for a reversal of God’s expressed intention. And, the request is granted. In the second reading, Paul expressed hope that the earliest Church in Corinth would go forward on to perfection, and that they would live in harmony and peace. He ends with a blessing and benediction of peace. The gospel this weekend emphasizes that the origin and initiative in all salvation lies with God. God gave us his only Son so that we all, the lovely and the unlovely, could know His grace and love. God acts not for His own sake but for all of our sakes. God is not like an absolute monarch who treats each person as a subject to be reduced to total obedience. God is the Father who cannot be happy until His wandering children have come home. God does not smash people into submission. He yearns for them to accept his grace and love. We are taught to live in faith but many wonder why our capacities for love, patience, and kindness are limited. But these qualities belong only to those who are growing in faith. Without God’s grace and faith in God, all that we may possess is worth nothing. The goal that we seek of increasing our faith makes us worthy of God’s promise to us. It is a task that calls for our dedication and our highest aspiration.

Have a good week!

Love and prayers,
Father Randy

National Eucharistic Revival: Beginning of the Year of Parish Revival

June 11, the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ, marks the entrance into the second year of the National Eucharistic Revival— the Year of Parish Revival. The second phase will foster Eucharistic devotion at the parish level, strengthening our liturgical life through faithful celebration of the Mass, Eucharistic Adoration, missions, resources, preaching, and organic movements of the Holy Spirit.

Summer Choir at St. Aloysius

During the months of June, July and August a “Summer Choir” will provide liturgical music at the 11:00 AM Sunday Mass. This more informal choir will only rehearse in the hour before the Mass in the Convent Choir Room. Both new singers and past choir members are invited to sing in the Summer Choir. Sopranos, Altos, Tenors and Basses of all ages are needed and welcome to attend. This is an opportunity to sing with the choir without having to commit to mid-week rehearsals. Share your musical gifts in the Music Ministry at St. Aloysius Church by contacting Ken Thevenet, kthevenet@staloyusparish.com, 343-6657, ext 20.

WORD OF LIFE

"The Catholic Church has a long history of service to those who are most vulnerable and remains the largest private provider of social services in the United States.

Through the sacrificial efforts of faithful Catholics, the Church serves millions through diocesan ministries and agencies, Catholic hospitals and healthcare systems, immigration clinics, shelters, and Catholic schools and parishes.

...The Church consistently bears witness in word and deed to the beauty and dignity of every human life—including both mother and child."
