Our Challenge

Dear friends:

Like many prominent, highly visible people, the great prophet Jeremiah was the subject of gossip and innuendo. His enemies spread lies to discredit him with the public. Jeremiah was a person of integrity, and his life was an open book. Therefore, he maintained his confidence before God and the people. In our second reading this weekend from St. Paul's letter to the earliest Christians in Rome, he gives us a contrast between sinful humanity, personified in Adam, and redeemed humanity, personified in Jesus Christ. Evil has been defeated in Jesus' death on the cross, and though we are tempted by sin, we trust in the redeeming power of our Lord Jesus Christ. In this weekend's gospel passage, Jesus gives a picturesque image of God's love and care. His disciples would face many challenges, but he wanted them to trust in God, who cares for creatures as small and common as the sparrow. God would give them the strength to bear a faithful witness. In a superstar culture how much is enough? When we have set the standards of human achievement at the level of extraordinary excellence, how are most of us going to feel good about ourselves? The good news is that in the service of God greatness is not the point. To serve God sufficiently should be our highest aspiration. God's promises have more to do with sufficiency in serving God than with greatness by the world's standards. We live in a menacing world. Not only are there constant threats to our personal safety, but our highest aspirations as Christians are in jeopardy from many sides. Why isn't good enough "good enough"? The values of our culture are clearly in conflict with the life and teachings of Jesus Christ. The chief motivation behind the efforts of people in a "winning is everything" culture is ego-centric. Christ calls us to selfless service in his name. It is not important that we win or succeed for the sake of our own self-aggrandizement. It is important that we serve others in the spirit of Christ. In our service to the kingdom of God our best is always good enough.

Love and prayers,
Father Randy

WELCOME NEW PARISHIONERS

What is the Eucharist?

The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life. The term "Eucharist" originates from the Greek word eucharistia, meaning thanksgiving.

"Take; this is my body"

—Mark 14:22

The presence of Christ in the Eucharist is real, true, and substantial.

"Jesus awaits us in this sacrament of love." (St. John Paul II, Dominicae cenae, no. 3)

"It is called: Eucharist, because it is an action of thanksgiving to God." (CCC, no. 1328)

Eucharist "makes present the one sacrifice of Christ the Savior." (CCC, no. 1330)

Copyright © 2021, United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, Washington, DC. All rights reserved.

We will have monthly Adoration with praise and worship. Make plans to attend our inaugural Adoration on July 11, 2023, from 7:00 - 8:00 PM in the church. Copies of Bishop Barron's book, This is my Body, are available at all church entrances.

For more information on the National Eucharistic Revival, go to our website alloysius.org/eucharistic-revival.

Summer Choir at St. Aloysius

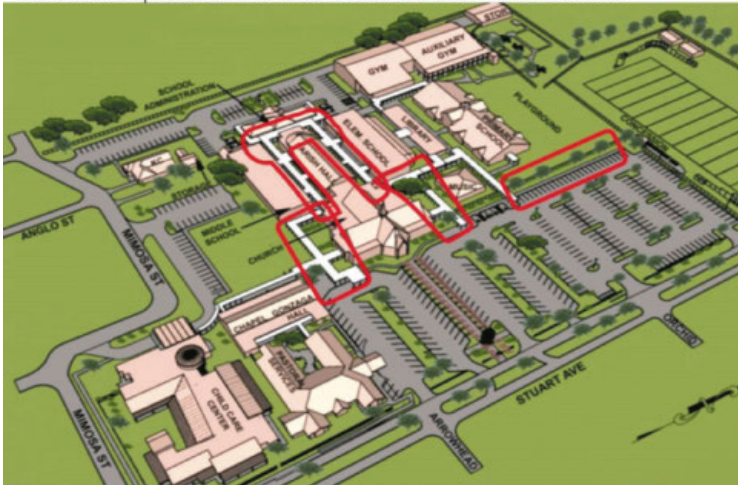

During the months of June, July and August a "Summer Choir" will provide liturgical music at the 11:00 AM Sunday Mass. This more informal choir will only rehearse in the hour before the Mass in the Convent Choir Room. Both new singers and past choir members are invited to sing in the Summer Choir. Sopranos, Altos, Tenors and Basses of all ages are needed and welcome to attend. This is an opportunity to sing with the choir without having to commit to mid-week rehearsals. Share your musical gifts in the Music Ministry at St. Aloysius Church by contacting Ken Thevenet, 343-6657, ext 20.

CHURCH ACCESS

JUNE 12 - AUGUST 4

The Church parking lot and entry ways (particularly for daily mass) may be impacted temporarily due to maintenance of the covered walkways throughout campus. No more than one of the four entrances into church should be impacted at one time. Please see areas circled below.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL 2023

Vacation Bible School was held during the week of June 12th through 16th. Due to construction projects on our campus, we celebrated it with St. Jude The Apostle Catholic Church. Our theme this year was Stellar “Shine Jesus’ Light.” Over 200 campers attended the fun filled week which included music, games, crafts, snacks, and skits.

We are so grateful to St. Jude for allowing us to team up with them this year. Special thanks to Fr. Trey Nelson, Deacon James Morrissey, Carmel Acosta and our VBS Directors, Leah Barbato, Erin Walker, Colleen Walker and “Astronaut” Scott Roussel. Thanks also goes to Raising Canes’ manager, Jesse Yanarella and his staff for donating lemonade and achievement cards. We would also like to acknowledge Fr. Randy Cuevas and Fr. Nutan Minj and all the wonderful volunteers who shared their faith, wisdom, and time with the children.
