GIVING TREE

Ornaments are now available in church and are located near the side entrances. Each ornament is a different symbol that represents a particular ministry or organization. Every ornament is tagged to describe a gift that you may give to help someone in need.

Prison Fellowship (Children of Prisoners), Interfaith Federation of Greater Baton Rouge Holy Grill Kids, Joseph Home Residents, Women in Crisis Pregnancies, Myriam's House, Bishop Ott Shelter, Habitat for Humanity, Developmental Disabilities, St. Vincent de Paul – Sweet Dreams, Capital Oaks Nursing Home, Seminarians, CASA-Court Appointed Special Advocate

Booklets are available telling a little about the organizations and the services they provide. You may keep your ornament as a reminder of our parish effort to help those in need. A special prayer is included on the back of the booklets—please remember to pray for those who are less fortunate this holiday season. Giving Tree Booklet.

Donated items should be returned to the labeled boxes in the back of church beginning on November 20th.

All gifts should be returned unwrapped by Sunday, December 10th.

St. Aloysius parishioners have always been incredibly generous in supporting the Giving Tree Ministry and we are thankful for your willingness to share what you have with those in need.

During Advent, Altar Flowers usually do not decorate the church or sanctuary. The church is decorated gradually throughout the season of Advent until it is fully decorated by Christmas. We do accept Christmas Flower Memorial Donations to help defray the cost of Trees, Poinsettias and other Christmas decorations. Complete this Sanctuary Flower Memorial Form and return it to the church office with your donation: Contact Ken Thevenet at kthevenet@staloysiusparish.com 343-6657, ext 20 for more information.

Our Challenge

Dear friends:

In the prophet Ezekiel's words this weekend, we hear echoes of the Twenty-third Psalm and of the Gospels' image of Jesus as the Good Shepherd. Like a shepherd, God treats his people with compassion. He goes in search of those who wander, binds up those who are injured, heals the sick, and provides pastureland and rest for all. In St. Paul's message to the earliest Christians in Corinth, Greece, that we hear this weekend, Jesus was inaugurated as king at his resurrection. His reign will endure until his second coming, at which time he will hand over the kingdom to his Father God. At this time God's relationship with redeemed humanity will be a direct one. The reign of Christ is the power that saves us from death and equips us for life. Jesus' rendering of the last judgment has some surprises for some orthodox expressions of Christian faith. The nations of the earth are judged, not in terms of doctrinal purity or ritual observance, but by a simpler standard. Those are blessed who have served Christ by serving the least of needy humanity. The difference between kings and shepherds is obvious. Jesus is ultimately Lord of all, but his lordship is best understood in the gentle, caring characteristics of the shepherd. In the great judgment, King Jesus will look upon humanity with eyes of the Good Shepherd. The single issue will be whether we have extended ourselves to the least of our brothers and sisters in compassion and care. In this season of Thanksgiving we are all grateful for our friends. What constitutes a friend? Henry Adams maintained, "One friend in a lifetime is much; two are many; three are hardly possible." Kahlil Gibran wrote that "your friend is your needs answered." In the end, Jesus' concern will not be how many friends we have but what kind of friends we have been to the friendless, the needy, and the fallen.

Have a good week and Happy Advent season ahead!

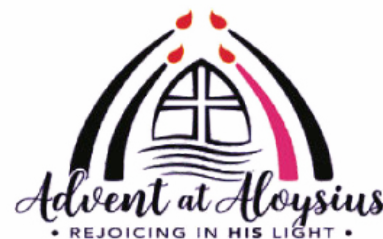

Love and prayers!
Father Randy

Adult and Not Confirmed?

The Sacrament of Confirmation completes the grace of Baptism, more perfectly binds one to the Church, and enriches one with a special strength of the Holy Spirit. Are you a baptized Catholic who has received the Sacraments of First Communion and First Reconciliation, is out of high school, but has not received the Sacrament of Confirmation? Contact Deacon Chauvin at cwilkinson@staloyusparish.com. He will send you an application packet which should be completed and returned soon. Adult Confirmation classes will be held from 6:30-8 PM on February 5, February 19, March 4, March 18, March 25, April 15, and April 22, 2024. Presently, the class meetings are scheduled to be at St. Aloysius in the Edith Stein Room of Gonzaga Hall. Your sponsor must be a confirmed and practicing Catholic in good standing with the Church.

Tentatively, the Rite of Confirmation with Bishop Duca is planned for the 10:30 AM Mass at St. Joseph Cathedral on May 19, 2024.

WORD OF LIFE

“Having received the gift of the Gospel of Life, we are the people of life and a people for life. It is our duty to proclaim the Gospel of Life to the world. To proclaim Jesus is to proclaim life itself. Gratitude and joy at the incomparable dignity of the human person impel us to bring the Gospel of life to the hearts of all people and make it penetrate every part of society.”

Hebrews:
The New and Eternal Covenant
A Great Adventure Bible Study from Ascension Press
Register Now for this Upcoming Study Opportunity at St. Aloysius!

Embark on a guided tour of the “Holy of Holies” of biblical theology. The New Testament book of Hebrews is like a little Catechism. It is steeped in rich truths that are foundational to our Catholic Faith, but its highly refined theological concepts can be difficult for even the most seasoned Bible scholars to unpack.

Featuring videos presented by Andrew Swafford and Jeff Cavins, Hebrews: The New and Eternal Covenant draws out the riches of this sublime book in a way that makes them easier to understand. It draws connections between the Old and New Testaments, the Liturgy, the Eucharist, the priesthood, and so much more. Most importantly, Hebrews will help Catholics appreciate the astounding generosity of God as they see the wonders he has given us in the Church – especially during this time of Eucharistic Revival!

This next installment in our ongoing series of Great Adventure Bible Studies from Ascension Press will begin in mid January 2024. Registration forms are available in the lobby of the Pastoral Services Center and on our parish website.

All forms should be submitted by December 15, 2023 to ensure that materials are available to begin by mid-January. For more information, contact Mark Christian at mchristian@staloyusparish.com.

Retirement Fund for Religious
Special Appeal 2nd Collection

Catholic bishops of the United States launched the collection in 1988 in response to the profound lack of retirement funding among U.S. religious communities. Collection proceeds offer these communities supplemental support for stabilizing retirement savings and meeting day-to-day needs. Generosity to the annual appeal has helped many religious communities address their retirement deficits, yet hundreds of others continue to face a troubling gap between the needs of aging members and the funds available to support them.
