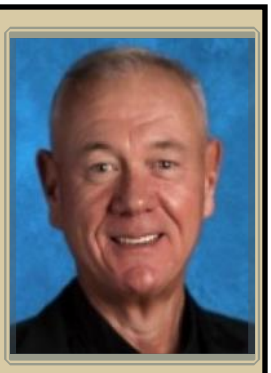
Our Challenge



Dear friends,

In our reading from the Book of Genesis this weekend, we get a remarkable story about human responsibility. The influence of ten righteous individuals could have saved the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah. Abraham was concerned about the fate of the innocent, but he could only do so much alone. We should not minimize the power of a moral minority. The ritual of baptism is a perpetual reminder of the power of God to bring life out of death. We may feel that our efforts to make our world a better place are too small to make a difference. But God can work miracles through those with willing hearts. Jesus was a true realist. He recognized the importance of the common ventures of life. We are spiritual creatures living in this world while seeking a higher realm. Therefore, Jesus taught us to pray for daily bread as well as for the coming kingdom of God. Jesus' disciples came to him with a request: "Teach us to pray." Didn't they know how to pray? Whatever prayer had meant to them in the past, Jesus' praying must have had an impact on them. Probably this was one of many areas in his life that moved and inspired them. They wanted to learn how to pray as Jesus prayed. We sometimes question whether our prayers make any difference, yet the heroes of faith prayed without ceasing. Bold claims have always been made for prayer. Bumper stickers read: "Prayer Changes Things." A thoughtful response to this affirmation might be to ask, What does prayer change? More often than changing the world around us, prayer changes the world within us. Prayer gives us a new perspective on things. Prayer gives us a new power over circumstances. Prayer changes more things than we know.

Have a good week!

Love and prayers,
Father Randy

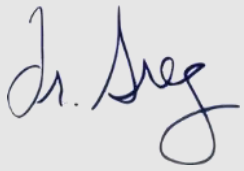
Dear Sisters and Brothers of St. Aloysius Parish,

I want to take this time to say "thank you" for the many kindnesses shown during my two weeks here at the parish. Your parish is a remarkable testament to the vibrancy of our Catholic faith. I am still amazed at all the activities that go on, as well as the various faith groups that meet throughout the week. My prayers are for the upcoming Women's Act Retreat, inspired what I saw happening with the men who participated in the last Men's retreat.

One final note. Please pray for vocations, whether to the diocesan priesthood or religious life. There are so many good young people in this parish who would make good priests, sisters and brothers. It's a radical expression of love and commitment to serve God's people. If you have an inkling about the priesthood or religious life, check it out, as the Holy Spirit has a soft voice!

Again, thank you for a wonderful two weeks here, and know of my prayers for all of you.

Peace and all good in Christ,



Fr. Greg

What is Children's Church?
All PreK–2nd grade children are invited to attend Children's Church. Classes are held on most Sundays in the cafeteria during the 9 and 11:00 AM Masses. Children will come to Mass with their family. They will be dismissed by the priest after a special blessing just before the Liturgy of the Word and will return to church just before the consecration.

No registration is necessary.

Is your family file current?

Has your child changed schools for the 2022-2023 school year, please send notification to Aline at alandry@staloysiusparish.com
Thank you!

WORD OF LIFE

"Married love differs from any other love in the world. By its nature, the love of husband and wife is so complete, so ordered to a lifetime of communion with God and each other, that it is open to creating a new human being they will love and care for together. … That power to create a new life with God is at the heart of what spouses share with each other."

The Prophets: God's Messengers of Mercy

If God's people had stayed close to him, there might have been no need for the prophets. God sent prophets at critical times to call the people back to their covenant relationship. Prophets proclaimed the consequences of continued sin, called people to repentance, and declared God's faithful love. They also spoke of the future to shed light on current events and to reveal God's plans and purposes. The message of the prophets is vital for understanding the work and message of Jesus.

In this 10-session study, video presenter Thomas Smith will examine who the prophets were, their role during their time, and the meaning of their message for us.

Weekly study groups are being organized to meet at various days and times beginning in mid September. The cost for materials is $25.
To register, fill out a registration form and return it to the parish office. Forms are available here and in the in the parish office.

Summer Music at St. Aloysius

During the summer months there will be two music groups that will sing for Sunday liturgy

Summer Choir begins on Sunday, June 12 and continues each Sunday through Labor Day. Summer choir is open to all adult, youth, and children of the parish. It is an ideal way for a family to share in music ministry together. This choir is designed to allow individuals and families to try out singing in a church choir without having to commit to a mid-week rehearsal. Summer Choir is flexible. It is organized to accommodate the vacation and summer schedules of our parishioners. The choir will rehearse at 10:00 AM each Sunday in the Convent Choir Room. The Summer Choir will lead the music for the 11:00 AM mass.
For more information about The Summer Choir, Ken Thevenet, 225-343-6657, ext 20. or kthevenet@staloysiusparish.com.

The 5:30 Music Ministry will also continue to provide music for the Sunday evening Mass during the summer months. This group is primarily made up of high school and college-aged musicians. If you enjoy singing, please share your gifts with the 5:30 Music Ministry. Rehearsals take place before Mass at 4:30 PM in the Convent Choir Room.
Contact Erik Gudiel edgudi@gmail.com or Ken Thevenet, 225-343-6657, ext 20 or 36 for more information.
