Prayer Shawl Ministry Volunteers

We make items for people who need comfort and reassurance that God is with them, during rough or happy times. We knit or crochet prayer cloths, hats, shawls and blankets and they are available at the parish office free of charge. We are looking for all levels of experience, from beginners to rusty to expert. All supplies are available if needed. We meet informally and enjoy each other's company. We would love to have you come check us out! Join us at Gonzaga Hall Library from 9:00-11:00 AM on the first and third Thursday of the month. All are welcome!

Our Challenge

Dear friends,

The Bible portrays faith as a paradoxical partnership between the individual and God. We can decide to seek God's will, but we can only do God's will with the help of God. God must give us what we choose, and we must choose what God gives us. We cannot imagine all the things that lie ahead of us when we choose the way of holiness. But God gives us the light we need for the journey of faith. Each step we take brings us closer to the holy mystery of God's grace. Why did Jesus make such extraordinary demands of his disciples? He put wrong 'thinking' in the same category as wrong 'doing' in order to show that we can never become holy on our own strength. Our holiness ultimately comes as a gift from God. Maybe you have jokingly said, "I'm humble and proud of it!" This phrase captures the difficulty of the person who is trying to live a holy life. How can we strive for holiness without falling into the pride that undermines holiness? The only way to avoid pride is to recognize that whatever holiness we possess comes from God. The surest way to miss out on holiness is to become holy for our own sake rather than for the sake of others. Holiness is no technique for gaining earthly happiness or heavenly reward. Holiness is a way of glorifying God and serving others. Life is filled with strange ironies. Neither happiness nor holiness can be won by our own efforts. The most important things in life come to us indirectly, as by-products of our service to other people. We are blessed primarily when we are a blessing to others.

Have a good week!

Love and prayers,
Father Randy

"Our paschal lamb, Christ, has been sacrificed." These words of St. Paul in his Letter to the Corinthians express the highest mystery of the Catholic faith, which Christians around the world contemplate and celebrate every year during the Lent and Easter seasons: the suffering, dying, and rising of Jesus.

In this year's devotional book, The Paschal Mystery: Reflections for Lent and Easter, readers are offered a week-by-week guide through these sacred seasons with a series of reflections on Lenten themes like death, temptation, repentance, prayer, fasting, and almsgiving; the events of the Paschal Mystery of Christ recalled during Holy Week; and the joy of the Gospel reflected in the Easter season.

Featuring key passages from Scripture, hymns, poetry, prayers, and additional reflections from across two thousand years of Catholic tradition, The Paschal Mystery is a perfect companion guide for parishes, families, and individuals longing for a deeper encounter with Christ during Lent and Easter.

The books will be available in baskets by the doors of the church beginning mid-February.

Stewardship through Offering

alloysius.org/offering

Love One Another As I Have Loved You

This past weekend we began our focus on Stewardship through Offering. Stewardship gives us an opportunity to reflect on the most critical challenge in our lives – growing closer to God. Each of us is on a spiritual journey, and stewardship provides a road map that leads us to that closeness to God.

We are blessed to live in a parish where stewardship is alive and well – where individuals willingly share their time, talent and treasure in a remarkable way.

It is so important that as we reflect on our personal stewardship through offering, we do so with our personal relationship with Christ uppermost in our minds. We should examine very closely the investment we give in ministry, prayer and resources. During this year's stewardship effort, we encourage every member of our faith community respond to our Stewardship through Offering invitation.

This year's Total Stewardship theme is from John 15:12, "This is my commandment: love one another as I love you." We naturally follow Jesus by showing love for one another through the Stewardship efforts of prayer, ministry, and offering. Visit us at <https://www.aloysius.org/offering> to learn more about the importance of stewardship in our faith community.

WORD OF LIFE

"Married love differs from any other love in the world. By its nature, the love of husband and wife is so complete, so ordered to a lifetime of communion with God and each other, that it is open to creating a new human being they will love and care for together."

A VOCATION VIEW

Anyone who will not take up his cross is not worthy to follow Jesus. Therefore, pray that many more generous men and women will be willing to embrace the cross and follow Jesus as a priest, brother, or sister. If you think God is calling you to a Church Vocation, call or email Rev. Joshua Johnson at (225) 336-8778, jjohnson@diobr.org.

SAVE THE DATE FOR 2023 VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL (VBS) Calling all adult volunteers for a Stellar Adventure!

St. Jude and St. Aloysius will partner for a joint Vacation Bible School program this summer June 12-16, 2023, 9 AM - 12 PM on St. Jude's campus. There are many opportunities to share your time and talents! Adult Volunteer registration is now open Click Here. Anticipated registration dates are February 15th for youth volunteers and March 6th for child participants. Please note that facilities capacity is limited, and adult volunteers will receive preference for child registration.

St. Aloysius Habitat for Humanity

Once again St. Aloysius is participating in the Catholic Coalition Build. Through this effort a deserving family can feel the pride of homeownership (a home that they would not be able to afford except through Habitat). The volunteers and the homeowner working side by side along with an interest free loan from Habitat make the home affordable. This year's build will begin Saturday, February 4, 2023.

Workdays are Wednesday and Saturday.

The scheduled St. Aloysius work dates are listed below.

Saturday, February 18

Wednesday, February 22

Saturday, March 18

Wednesday, March 22

Saturday, April 22

Please consider continuing the St. Aloysius tradition of participation in the Catholic Coalition by working one of these scheduled workdays. Lunches are also needed. If you, or a group, are willing to provide lunches for the workers one of these days please email or call Kim .

If you have any questions or would like to volunteer or provide lunch, call Kim Boudreaux at 225-205-2870 or email boudro@aol.com (put Habitat in the subject line). There is a job for everyone on the work site.

Attention Business Owners, Professionals and Self Employed

LPI, our bulletin publisher, will have Kim Broyard our bulletin representative visiting our church within the next few weeks to service our bulletin. We would like to thank our present advertisers for renewing their ad and thereby continuing their support of our Church. For those interested in placing a new ad, this is your opportunity.

Our bulletin is a primary way we use to communicate with you. Through our arrangement with the LPI Inc., the church cost may be off-set or no cost for printing, which saves us thousands of dollars every year. Our bulletin is supported through the generosity of the advertisers—many of whom are our own parishioners or members of our local community. During these difficult economic times, please support our advertisers with your patronage. Tell the business owner that you appreciate their support of our Church through their advertising in the bulletin. This is one small way we can work within our own community to weather these challenging times. A strong and vibrant bulletin is good for our community and a strong business community is good for our Church.

To obtain information about advertising for the new publication year, please email Kim Broyard at kbroyard@4lpi.com or call directly @ 1-800-477-4574 ext. 6322 or 504-333-2816. Keep in mind; our advertising sponsors make the bulletin possible.
