Our Challenge

Dear friends,

To put it bluntly, the life of Jesus is a tough act to follow. Throughout his whole life he was despised for teaching truth and doing good. Yet he held to his principles at the risk and eventually the cost of his life. Following Jesus is not an easy path. "Don't expect the world to applaud you for being a follower of Christ." is the warning we get in our New Testament reading from the first letter of St. Peter. Since Christ suffered, we must be prepared to suffer as well. Even harder, we must be prepared to return good for evil done to us if we are true followers of Christ. The only way into the "sheepfold of God" is through the "sheepgate of Christ." There are no shortcuts and no back doors into the kingdom of God. We have to travel the way of crucifixion and resurrection to be a part of his flock, and to live in his pasture. Modern biblical scholarship has revealed a truth to the church that we badly need to hear. Through the centuries we have read our values and prejudices back into the life of Christ. Too often we have followed a comfortable Christ of our own making rather than the revolutionary Christ we find in the Gospels. Idolatry is the perennial temptation of the religious life. Christians are no less likely to be idolaters than pagans. Idolatry is simply a matter of making God in our own image. Let us dare to follow the Christ of the gospel rather than the Christ of our imagination. The great American clergyman Henry Ward Beecher said: "There's not much practical Christianity in the man who lives on better terms with angels than with his neighbors." We will not follow Christ into heavenly glory unless we follow him in earthly service.

Have a good week!

Love and prayers,

Father Randy

Rites of Full Communion at the Easter Vigil

St. Aloysius Parish joyfully welcomed four Candidates for Full Communion at the Great Vigil of Easter on Saturday evening, April 8.

Clinton Bize, Emily Lindig, William Sanders, and Martin Setliff made a Profession of Faith, were anointed with Sacred Chrism in the Sacrament of Confirmation, and received their First Communion in the Catholic Church.

These Rites are the culmination of months of preparation and discernment through our year-round RCIA ministry. If you are interested in learning more about the Catholic Faith, exploring full communion with the Catholic Church, or interested in serving as a sponsor for one of our Catechumens or Candidates, contact Mark Christian at mchristian@staloyiusparish.com

WORD OF LIFE

"People often say, "I could never handle a child with a disability." But the beauty of parenting is that you aren't given a child with a disability. You are given your child with a disability. Your child enters the world in a relationship with you, and that changes everything. You are not called to 'handle' a disability. You are called to love a particular person, and caring for him or her grows out of that love."
