Our Challenge

Dear friends:

In our Old Testament passage from the Book of Proverbs this weekend is provided the description of the perfect wife. Since these words come from an ancient time we might expect her chief characteristic to be subordination to her husband, but it is fidelity to God and to all her responsibilities. She brings good and not evil, and her works are praised by the general public. Our second reading reflects that the earliest Christians believed in the imminent return of the risen Christ. Some took this to mean that they could simply take their ease. Paul corrected this point of view and called the people to be diligent in doing good, as children of the light. They were to be awake and alert, because the day of the Lord would come as a thief in the night. Jesus' parable in this weekend's gospel passage points to a wonderful equality among people in the sight of God. The principle of stewardship means that each of us is responsible for whatever has been entrusted to us. God does not value those with many gifts more than the modestly gifted. Ultimately we are all judged on the basis of what we have done with what we have been given. Since most of us are concerned about economic realities, Jesus' parable about the talents may capture our attention. At one point the master in the story says, "For to everyone who has, more will be given and he will grow rich." Does God reward us financially? Some Christian proclamation makes such claims. But it is the Father's business we are to be busy about. In the economy of God's kingdom those who are rich in spirit, and are good stewards, do indeed become richer. Sometimes it is fear of failure that keeps us from success. Faith itself, however, involves an element of risk. Stewardship means serving God's kingdom both with generosity and with confidence, trusting the results to God's gracious providence. What does God give us? What we are given, primarily, is God's own self, God's love, God's spirit. When we are good stewards of God's presence within us, then it is multiplied with us, so that the more we have the more we are given. We increase God's spirit within us by sharing it, by giving it away. Conversely, to close the channels of our lives to others is to diminish the life God is attempting to give us. In the economy of the spirit, the more you give, the more you have.

Have a good week!

Love and prayers,
Father Randy

GIVING TREE

For many years, the St. Aloysius Parish Social Responsibility Committee has sponsored the Giving Tree during the Advent Season. As our focus turns to Christmas and Christmas shopping, the Giving Tree provides a way for parishioners to help those in need. This year over 600 ornaments have been crafted by the 5th—8th grade students at St. Aloysius School for the ministries represented.

Each ornament is a different symbol that represents a particular ministry or organization. Every ornament is tagged to describe a gift that you may give to help someone in need. Beginning with the 4:30 PM Mass on Saturday, November 18th, you will be invited to select one of these ornaments from baskets located on tables at the side doors of the church:

Prison Fellowship (Children of Prisoners), Interfaith Federation of Greater Baton Rouge Holy Grill Kids, Joseph Home Residents, Women in Crisis Pregnancies, Myriam's House, Bishop Ott Shelter, Habitat for Humanity, Developmental Disabilities, St. Vincent de Paul – Sweet Dreams, Capital Oaks Nursing Home, Seminarians, CASA-Court Appointed Special Advocate

Ornaments will be placed in baskets near the side entrances of the church beginning on Saturday, November 18th with final collection on Sunday, December 10th. Each ornament represents a particular organization and has an attached tag listing items specifically requested by that organization. Booklets will be available telling a little about the organizations and the services they provide. You may keep your ornament as a reminder of our parish effort to help those in need. A special prayer is included on the back of the booklets—please remember to pray for those who are less fortunate this holiday season. Donated items should be returned to the labeled boxes in the back of church beginning on November 20th. All gifts should be returned unwrapped by Sunday, December 10th.

St. Aloysius parishioners have always been incredibly generous in supporting the Giving Tree Ministry and we are thankful for your willingness to share what you have with those in need.

Hebrews:
The New and Eternal Covenant
A Great Adventure Bible Study from Ascension Press
Register Now for this Upcoming Study Opportunity at St. Aloysius!

Embark on a guided tour of the “Holy of Holies” of biblical theology. The New Testament book of Hebrews is like a little Catechism. It is steeped in rich truths that are foundational to our Catholic Faith, but its highly refined theological concepts can be difficult for even the most seasoned Bible scholars to unpack.

Featuring videos presented by Andrew Swafford and Jeff Cavins, Hebrews: The New and Eternal Covenant draws out the riches of this sublime book in a way that makes them easier to understand. It draws connections between the Old and New Testaments, the Liturgy, the Eucharist, the priesthood, and so much more. Most importantly, Hebrews will help Catholics appreciate the astounding generosity of God as they see the wonders he has given us in the Church – especially during this time of Eucharistic Revival!

This next installment in our ongoing series of Great Adventure Bible Studies from Ascension Press will begin in mid January 2024. Registration forms are available in the Lobby of the Pastoral Services Center and on our parish website.

All forms should be submitted by December 15, 2023 to ensure that materials are available to begin by mid-January. For more information, contact Mark Christian at mchristian@stalloysiusparish.com.

Adult and Not Confirmed?

The Sacrament of Confirmation completes the grace of Baptism, more perfectly binds one to the Church, and enriches one with a special strength of the Holy Spirit. Are you a baptized Catholic who has received the Sacraments of First Communion and First Reconciliation, is out of high school, but has not received the Sacrament of Confirmation? Contact Deacon Chauvin by email at cwilkinson@stalloysiusparish.com. He will send you an application packet which should be completed and returned soon. Adult Confirmation classes will be held from 6:30-8 PM on February 5, February 19, March 4, March 18, March 25, April 15, and April 22, 2024. Presently, the class meetings are scheduled to be at St. Aloysius in the Edith Stein Room of Gonzaga Hall. Your sponsor must be a confirmed and practicing Catholic in good standing with the Church.

Tentatively, the Rite of Confirmation with Bishop Duca is planned for the 10:30 AM Mass at St. Joseph Cathedral on May 19, 2024.

Advent Devotional Books Now Available!

Beginning at all Masses the weekend of November 18-19, copies of the Little Blue Book of daily Advent devotions will be available in baskets near the doors of the church.

In this time of waiting and anticipation, prepare your heart by spending time with God each day of Advent. The Little Blue Book guides you through this joyful season with short devotionals that will inspire you. This year's Advent book focuses on the Infancy Narrative of Luke's Gospel and begins Dec. 3, 2023. Also, in each book you should find a prayer card outlining recommended prayer intentions for our parish for each month of the upcoming year, developed and provided by our Stewardship through Prayer Committee.

More information about these intentions will be available as we approach our Stewardship through Prayer Emphasis Weekend on December 2-3!
