CARE OF THE SICK

Families of the sick are encouraged to contact the Pastoral Services Center at 343-6657. Communion is brought to the sick weekly. Hospital visits are also made weekly.

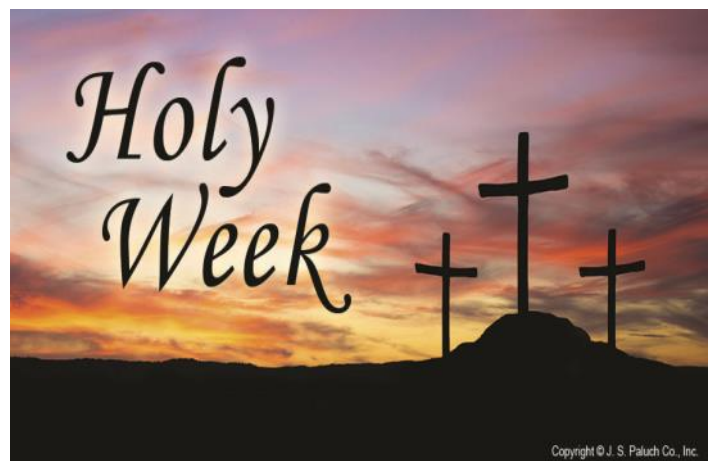

Broken, Burdened and Blessed

The St. Aloysius Stephen Ministry is sponsoring an Evening of Reflection, "Broken, Burdened, and Blessed," on Thursday, April 7, 2022, from 6:30 – 7:30 PM in the church.

Lent is a season to unearth our brokenness; embracing it as we move toward the cross and the empty tomb. We are reminded to bear one another's burdens, to embrace whatever brokenness resides in our lives and that we are not alone in the burden or our wounds we carry. By allowing God to minister and heal our wounds we are graced with many blessings through experiencing healing and wholeness.

In this special candle lighting service, members of our parish community will individually light five candles; candles representing grief, hope, courage, love, and life. A reflection will be read for each candle that is lit, followed by soft music and time for personal reflection and journaling. All are welcome for this special time of prayer and contemplation.

Our Challenge

Dear friends:

In our readings for the Mass this Palm Sunday, the prophet Isaiah provides a vivid example of the life of faith. He was willing to speak the truth in all circumstances and obey God regardless of the consequences. From deep within he was compelled to stand for God and for God's people. It often cost him dearly, and he was abused both physically and psychologically for his faithfulness. The modern world tends to think of Jesus almost exclusively in terms of his divinity, forgetting his humanity. In his message to the earliest Christian community in Philippi, Greece, the apostle Paul reminds us that Jesus was human in every respect. He was not a sinner, but he was human. He knew temptation and confusion and was often weary. Still, he had the courage to fulfill his mission no matter how stressful and dangerous the challenges were. The story of Jesus' suffering is full of incredible treachery and cruelty. From the night of his betrayal until his death on the cross Jesus endured all manner of indignities and physical pain. As once again we follow him through this dark and horrifying drama, it is important that we remember that his was the purest and most innocent of human lives. Children who receive the message that they are acceptable only if they are good may grow into adults who cannot stand to be guilty. When we need to justify ourselves, we tend to place blame on others. All of us, as sinners, are responsible for Christ's cross. When Christians have not been able to accept this, Jews have often been the scapegoats. But Christ died for us all, and all of us are responsible for his death. Jesus died for the sin of the world. He went to the cross out of love for God and for all people. All along the via dolorosa were individuals who were blind to his true identity and to what his death would mean for them. When we are called to take up our crosses and follow Jesus, this involves us in caring for all those whom Jesus loved. A part of what it means to be involved in the events of Holy Week is that we acknowledge our part in the converging influences that led to the death of Jesus. Holy Week is a time of honesty and repentance. This is not to be the extent of our involvement, however. Our challenge is to share in Christ's passion by committing ourselves to all those whom Jesus loved and for whom he died. Let us take up our crosses of love for God and for other people and follow our Lord.

A blessed and happy Holy Week to all!

Love and prayers,
Father Randy

St. Aloysius Habitat for Humanity

Once again, St. Aloysius is participating in the Catholic Coalition Build. Through this effort a deserving family can feel the pride of homeownership (a home that they would not be able to afford except through Habitat).

This year's build began Saturday, February 12, 2022. Workdays are Wednesday and Saturday. If you have any questions or would like to volunteer, call Kim Boudreaux at 225-205-2870 (c) or email boudro@aol.com (put Habitat in the subject line).

There is a job for everyone on the work site.

Scheduled dates are: Saturday, April 9, Wednesday, April 13. Lunches are also needed. If you, or a group, are willing to provide lunches for the workers one of these days, please contact Kim.

Ushers and Ministers of Hospitality

We need welcoming men, women and youth who will assist in seating those attending Mass. Ushers also take up the collection and assist with the procession at the time of Holy Communion.

If you would like to serve in this important Parish ministry, contact Ken Thevenet, 343-6657, ext. 20
