Our Challenge

Dear friends,

Many people have dreamed of being granted one wish or request. In our first reading this weekend, we hear that it happened to King Solomon. He could have chosen long life, immense wealth, or military success. Instead, he chose wisdom: "an understanding heart to govern your people and to distinguish right from wrong." He evidenced great wisdom in his choice, and God granted his request. Still writing to the earliest Christians in Rome in this weekend's second reading, St. Paul offers a profound understanding of how God is involved in our lives, especially in our times of suffering. God does not cause everything that happens, but God is at work in whatever happens to us, seeking to use the experience to help us grow more fully into the image of Jesus Christ. Our culture's quantitative values place a premium on "how big" and "how much." Jesus put the emphasis on qualitative values, on quality of life. A true treasure, such as the kingdom of God, is worth sacrificing all the temporary, unfulfilling things the world thinks are so important. A popular Television Show a number of years ago was called "I've Got a Secret." The guest always had a secret and the panelists worked at guessing what it was. Some secrets remain unknown to us forever. Many of the mysteries of God confound us. Apparently, God is good at keeping secrets. A father questioned his son about an incident involving another boy in the neighborhood. The son asked, "Dad, can you keep a secret?" The father said, "Yes, of course." The son said, "So can I." We speak of God as the One to whom all hearts are open and all secrets are known. God knows all about us and loves us anyway. God's secrets are revealed to us in God's own time. Often God waits until we are mature enough or wise enough to be good stewards of his holy mysteries. Even then, beyond what we know of God and his eternal kingdom, there are mysteries and secrets we cannot begin to fathom.

Have a good week!

Love and prayers,
Father Randy

Grief Support Series Begins in the Fall

The St. Aloysius Stephen Ministry is sponsoring a 10-week grief support book series study written by Dr. Alan Wolfelt, which launches in September with a series of ten morning sessions offered.

Morning Grief Support sessions begin on Wednesday, September 6th from 9:00 -10:30 AM in the PSC Conference Room, and continue every Wednesday, Sept. 13th, 20th, 27th, Oct. 4th, Oct. 11th, 18th, 25th, Nov. 1st, 8th and 15th. The cost of the materials is $25.00 which includes the book and journal. The support group will be led by Dana Territo, Stephen Ministry Leader, who has been trained at the Alan Wolfelt Loss and Transition Center in Colorado, as well as facilitated by other Stephen Ministry members, too. If you or someone you know is experiencing loss and sadness and would like to register for this support group book series, please contact Dana Territo at territo4@yahoo.com or email Stephen.ministry.alloysiusbr@gmail.com. You can also complete the information below and email it to Dana or return the registration form and payment to the church office.

A Challenge to Pray for Our Children

From crib through college our children face serious and growing spiritual challenges that we should not ignore or minimize. As parents, grandparents, godparents, aunts, uncles, etc. we have a special privilege and responsibility to pray for them.

To this end, all caring adults are invited to gather at St. George Chapel July 30 at 4:30 to offer a rosary and other prayers for our children. Let's join together as we ask God to bless and protect the children in our lives and for our Blessed Mother to intercede for them.

Resources will be provided to help you continue to pray in this way for the children in your life and to guide them to the loving heart of God.

WORD OF LIFE

"A woman with an unexpected pregnancy may have any number of fears and challenges: facing judgment from her friends and family, losing her job or housing, or being abandoned by the father of her child. Following Mary's example, we can ask ourselves how to better know these mothers, listen to them, seek understanding, and help them obtain the necessities of life for themselves and their children."

MISSION APPEAL AT ST. ALOYSIUS PARISH: AUGUST 12th & 13th (All Masses)

Every year the Diocese of Baton Rouge invites deserving missionaries to be involved in the Missionary Cooperative Plan. This year Fr. Steve Rodrigues (a Franciscan Capuchin from south India) will make an appeal so that the Capuchin Franciscan mission can continue in India.

Our Ministries: Following the example of St. Francis of Assisi, Capuchins give priority to two ministries: working with the poor and preaching the Word of God. Under these two descriptions fall a variety of ministries that further the dream of St. Francis: serving in prisons, homeless shelters, dispensaries, elderly, youth ministry, taking care of orphans, retreat centers, looking after poor parishes, free medical care for the poor, etc. We humbly request you to generously support us in these ministries.

We have a special charism for working with the poor, orphans, neglected and the forgotten and taking those assignments which others refuse. The special collection from all the weekend Masses August 12th and 13th, will go to take care of the following projects:

To construct 7 classrooms for the education of the slow learners of the remote village (children and adults).

Feeding, sustaining, educating and other basic facilities for 75 boys in a poor village.

Renovation of the Boarding building and school for the underprivileged, migrants, street children etc.

The building is in a bad shape and needs urgent attention.

To help around 50 young children who have lost both of their parents due to Covid-19.

To construct a community hall: to give free medical aid for the poor; and to give education to children, women and men in remote villages.

We are financially very weak and to carry forward our mission we depend on the providence of God, and on your generous and benevolent help. Thank you for your willingness to support us in our mission. God bless you abundantly for your generosity and sacrifices.

Fr. Steve Rodrigues, O.F.M.Cap.

Homebound parishioners who cannot attend Mass need you

We very much need 2 additional Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion to bring Holy Communion to parishioners who are at home and cannot come to Mass. It's part of reminding them that they are remembered and are still a part of our community. The schedule is very flexible and can be adapted to your individual schedule. Each volunteer serves about once each 5 weeks.

Not yet trained as an Extraordinary Minister? No problem! You can be trained quickly and be up to speed in no time! Anyone interested in assisting in this valuable ministry should contact Deacon Chauvin at 343-6657 or by emailing cwilkinson@staloyusparish.com.

BLOOD DRIVE

St. Aloysius Catholic Church
Parish Hall
Sunday, August 6, 2023

7:00am-1:00pm

DONORS SHOULD:

Eat before donating.

Bring picture ID

For additional information about donating,
please call 225-765-8843

Thank you from the Knights of Columbus

The Seminarian raffle ticket sales this past weekend at church was a great success with 815 tickets sold for a total intake of $4077. The number of tickets includes individuals who donated, so those donations have been converted to tickets for the seminarians so they will have an opportunity to win a prize.

This is an incredible result for a church drive, and we believe that St. Aloysius will set the goal for other parishes to try to achieve this year. This is a testament to the generosity of the parishioners and their support of vocations. This is the first church drive of the fraternal year, so we are off to a great start.

THANK YOU
for your generosity
