MUSIC MAKERS

Music Makers at St. Aloysius is a Mommy & Me program that meets informally once a week. In class, we love to encourage interaction between everyone! It's a great way to introduce your little ones to music, as well as other children. Each week we gather around in a circle and lead the class through a set music playlist comprised of educational and popular children's sing-along songs. Each child is assigned their own numbered bag that they will use throughout the year with their own set of sterilized instruments to ensure there is no sharing of germs. Music Makers is fun for everyone and a great way to meet members of the St. Aloysius community! We meet throughout the school year on Fridays at 9:30 AM in the Gonzaga Hall Atrium.

For more information, please contact Christina Pipes at cvpipes25@gmail.com.

Worship Commission invites you to a training for Readers Ministry on Sunday, October 2 from 1:30 - 2:30 PM in the church. This invitation is open to current as well as new readers. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact either Ken Thevenet (kthevenet@stalloysiusparish.com) or Joe Britt (josephrbritt@gmail.com). Please join us as we continue to serve our community.

Our Challenge

Dear friends:

In this weekend's passage from the Book of Amos, the prophet confronted the Israelites with their failure to remember their lessons from the past. Living in luxury put them at odds with the God who champions the poor, the homeless, and the captives. God will send judgment on those who despise justice and mercy. The Apostle Paul instructed young pastor Timothy in the things that really matter - - moral character, integrity, faith, love, and patience. Paul reminded the young man of his conversion and his calling, and his commitment to God. In this weekend's gospel passage, Jesus' parable of the rich man and Lazarus dramatically demonstrates how economic wealth can blind people to their spiritual poverty. The rich man refused to see that true security came from faith in God, not from financial assets and luxurious living. Why do the wicked prosper? This question has been asked in every generation. Implied in this question is another question: Why don't the righteous prosper? There are no simple answers. A different set of reasons lies behind each person's "lot" in life. The challenge is not to answer "why," but to do what we can to help the poor. It is impossible to remove entirely the human interest in being rewarded for good deeds or for exemplary behavior. When good people appear to be unrewarded in this life, we take comfort in the thought that they will be rewarded in the life to come. Rewards, whether here or in heaven, are seldom on the minds of genuinely good people. They help someone because they are moved by their need, or simply because it is the right thing to do. Doing good by helping others is its own reward.

Have a good week!

Love and prayers,
Father Randy

LOVE ONE ANOTHER

AS I HAVE LOVED YOU.

Stewardship through Ministry

Loving One Another!

Thank you for joining our parish in celebration of Ministry this past weekend! Now is your opportunity to follow Jesus' commandment: Love one another as I love you, by following His example of service to others. Jesus came to this world not to be served, but to serve.

Ministry is one element of being a good Steward. For those who are already active in ministry, we find ourselves better off, and many times in ways we had not imagined. Initially we are energized and believe our volunteer efforts in ministry will be a gift to God or to others. Soon we realize that stepping out in faith was instead a pathway for our Heavenly Father to care for us, to show us love, or to provide something great for us as an earthly blessing. We cannot outgive God!

How are you called to follow His example and love one another in the coming year?

- Talk to fellow parishioners who are active in ministry. They can help us discern our ministry interests.
- If you're involved in a ministry, invite a friend to become that part of the Body of Christ in our parish.
- Sign up! You can easily access and complete the online sign up form by:
 - CLICKING on the link from the Ministry Weekend invitation emailed to you
 - VISITING alloysius.org/ministry-signup
 - CALLING the parish office during business hours 225-343-6657

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER:

Take, Lord, and receive
All my liberty,
My memory,
My understanding,
And my entire will,
All I have and call my own.

You have given it all to me.

To you, Lord, I return it.
Everything is yours;
Do with it what you will.
Give me only your love
And your grace;
That is enough for me.

*-St. Ignatius of Loyola
The Suscipe Prayer*
