Scripture Readings for Palm Sunday

Dear friends,

Jesus did not defend himself against his enemies. Had he returned hate for hate, he would have canceled out everything he taught. He would have turned his back on everything he had accomplished. So he suffered for the sake of love. There is a real sense in which Jesus chose to die rather than to reject his calling. He chose to die at the hands of his enemies rather than defend himself against them by means of violence. The arrest, trial, and execution of Jesus is a drama about how the world treats inclusive love. Such love cuts across all the boundaries we set up to give ourselves advantages over others. Christ's crucifiers were people who fought back to protect their privileged positions. We tend to blame the death of Jesus on the religious bigots and political opportunists of the first century. They were the ones who plotted his arrest, railroaded his conviction, and executed him on the cross. But, if we look closely at the scene, we will see our own faces in the crowd. The story of our Lord's passion compels us to decide where we stand - - with his enemies or with his friends. We see life through different eyes when we climb the hill of Calvary. We see how envy, fear, and hatred can crucify goodness. We see how courage, trust, and hope can triumph over death. Seeing these things clearly, we cannot help but find ourselves somewhere in the crowd that surrounds his cross.

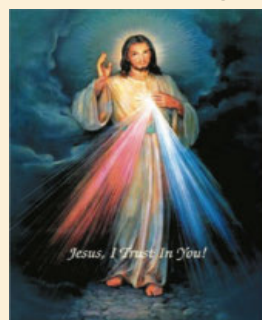

Happy Holy Week!

Love and prayers,
Father Randy

The Divine Mercy Novena

Parishioners are invited to participate in praying the Divine Mercy novena as a faith community. The Chaplet of Divine Mercy will be prayed on Good Friday and Holy Saturday at 8:30 AM in the Parish Hall before Morning Prayer. On Easter Sunday the Chaplet will be prayed in the Church at 8:30 AM. We will continue to pray the Chaplet every day at 8:30 AM in the Church until Divine Mercy Sunday, April 16. Our parish celebration of Divine Mercy concludes on the Second Sunday of Easter with community prayer of the Divine Mercy Chaplet in church at 8:30 AM, prior to 9:00 AM Mass.
