St. Joseph, the patron saint of fathers, was humble of heart and a man of few words.

He supported his family, protected them, guarded them from evil, and pointed them in the direction of our Heavenly Father.

May the fathers and father-figures in our parish devote themselves to this same mission:

listening to God and sacrificing daily for those around us.

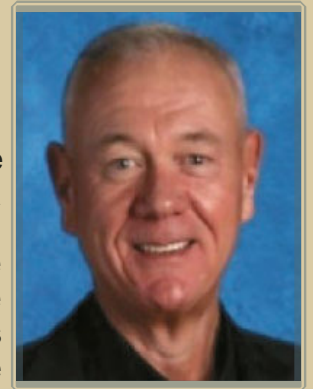

There will be a special blessing at the end of all Masses on Father's Day weekend

Our Challenge

Dear friends:

God dreamed of Israel's future. God bore the people up "on eagle wings" in the wilderness and spoke of how dear they were. God dreamed that they would be a "kingdom of priests" and "a holy nation." But Israel kept having other dreams. St. Paul understood grace to mean that God loves us despite our failure to be obedient and faithful. Grace is amazing because Christ died for us while we were still sinners. In Christ we have been reconciled to God as a gift of love. In this weekend's gospel passage, Jesus felt pity for the crowds because they were like sheep without a shepherd. Jesus sent his disciples to minister to people in the ways he himself ministered. They were to give of themselves freely, just as they had freely received. Words from an unforgettable speech delivered in Washington, D.C., by Martin Luther King, Jr., are: "I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up, live out the true meaning of its creed: we hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal." The dream is still worth dreaming, but for millions it is still only a dream. The governments of this world will never provide for the needs of all people. No safety nets or economic programs will rescue everyone. There is no earthly utopia just around the corner. As Christians we must follow Jesus into the lives of those whom others have forgotten. Matthew Arnold said the world "seems to lie before us like a land of dreams," but we discover that in reality it is "a darkling plain . . . where ignorant armies clash by night." (Dover Beach) Jesus was not a naïve idealist, but a hopeful realist. He was moved by the suffering of every person he met. He offered healing for sick minds and bodies, and forgiveness for those broken by sin. We can never meet all the needs of other people, but neither can we trust that governments will meet them. Our challenge is to follow in Jesus' steps and show compassion and kindness to the sufferers we meet.

Love and prayers,
Father Randy

1569 – The birth of Aloysius Gonzaga in Castiglione, Italy
1585 – He entered the Society of Jesus
1591 – Gonzaga's death, at age 23
1726 – Pope Benedict XIII canonized Aloysius Gonzaga, and three years later declared him the patron saint of youth and students, an honor later confirmed by Pope Pius XI in 1926. Today his remains rest in the church of the Gesu, next to those of his mentor, St. Robert Bellarmine.

The Solemnity of Corpus Christi

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

May the grace and peace of Jesus Christ, our Eucharistic Lord, be with you! On June 19, 2022, I announced, in union with the other Bishops of the United States, the beginning of the National Eucharistic Revival within our diocese. This three-year initiative was created with the intention of renewing the Church by rekindling a living relationship with Jesus Christ in the Eucharist amidst the joys and trials of our daily lives.

The intention of the first Year of Revival (June 16, 2022 - June 10, 2023) was to prepare diocesan leaders spiritually by renewing their devotions to the Eucharist. Almost one year later, I am moved by the growth I have already begun to see within our diocese. Throughout this year, the priests of our diocese and their staffs have attended (and will continue to attend) formational retreats to prepare their minds and hearts for the different initiatives that will be offered over the next year to their parishioners. In addition, some parishes have already begun offering formational opportunities for parishioners to personally encounter our Eucharistic Lord.

Over the year, I was also moved by how many families and individuals attended one of the five Holy Hours I hosted throughout the geographical boundaries of our diocese. To see hundreds of men, women and children from all walks of life adore our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament was incredibly moving, and I am so grateful I had the opportunity to witness those precious moments with you.

As we begin to shift our focus from the diocese to the parish for the second Year of Revival (beginning this weekend with the feast of Corpus Christi), I am inviting pastors and parish leaders to discern ways to strengthen their Eucharistic culture within their parishes by emphasizing:

Reinvigorated worship through the liturgy and the opportunity for increased access to the sacraments, especially Holy Eucharist and Confession;

Increased opportunities for personal encounter with the Blessed Sacrament by offering additional holy hour opportunities within parishes;

Robust faith formation within the parish through small groups, speaker series and catechetical homilies; and

Initiatives that encourage and activate the missionary hearts of parishioners to accompany and minister to fallen away parishioners and those who are most in need.

The Parish Year of Revival that you will be experiencing this year is your turn to personally encounter the Eucharistic Lord in a new way within your parish and diocesan community. If you are reading this letter and feel the Lord calling you to partake in the Revival throughout the upcoming year, I invite you to visit the National Eucharistic Revival's website and learn more about becoming a prayer partner or Eucharistic missionary.

As a diocese, let us give ourselves entirely to the One who has given us all of Himself in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I ask you to join me in prayer for all clergy, religious, parish leaders and volunteers who will be giving of themselves to these initiatives and for an outpouring of the Holy Spirit into each parish within this diocese and across our country.

Hope in the Lord,

+ Most Reverend Michael Gerard Duca

Bishop of Baton Rouge

Celebrating the National Eucharistic Revival At St. Aloysius

The Revival is underway at St. Aloysius! Last week on the Solemnity of Corpus Christi we began distributing copies of Bishop Robert Barron's This Is My Body: A Call to Eucharistic Revival. Plans are presently underway for an evening of Adoration on Tuesday, July 11th in the church from 7:00 - 8:00 PM and every first Tuesday of the Month, from 7:00 - 8:00 PM.

In the meantime, consider sampling this online course by Dr. Brant Pitre, which explores the biblical roots of the Eucharist from its foreshadowings in the events of the Old Testament, through the Gospels, to Apostolic teaching. Watch to discover how Christ's Body and Blood are an integral and wondrous part of God's plan for our salvation.
