Our Challenge

Dear friends,

When the Jewish exiles returned to Israel from their captivity in Babylon (Baghdad), they found their homeland partially occupied by non-Jewish people from other countries. In this weekend's Old Testament passage from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah, he called for a new, broader understanding of God's covenant with Israel. This passage introduces a much more inclusive understanding of God's love and purposes. The people of God must never think they have a monopoly on the truth. Like the prophet Isaiah, St. Paul is introducing a new vision of God's inclusive nature in our second reading passage this weekend from his letter to the earliest Christians in Rome. St. Paul saw his calling to be Christ's apostle to the gentiles (pagans). For this he was criticized and persecuted. Still, the commitment of his life was carrying the gospel of Christ to the whole world. His own people's rejection of Jesus, he believed, had helped open the way for gentiles to receive the gospel. The messages of the prophet Isaiah and the apostle Paul have much in common. Both saw that God's love is more inclusive than God's people have realized. The "neighbor" becomes everyone. In Christ the door to the kingdom of God is open to all. "Whosoever will, may come." Throughout the history of biblical religion there is a movement from a more narrow, restrictive perspective to a more expansive, inclusive direction. This is evident in both the Old and New Testaments. Our individual growth toward spiritual maturity follows the same pattern. Beginning with the awareness that "God loves me" we grow toward the recognition that "God loves everyone." Our customary schedules and routines may keep us from even seeing many of God's children, much less seeing their needs. "Out of sight, out of mind" is all too true. They are never out of God's sight, however. In the earliest days of my 30 year chaplain career in the USAFR, I was stationed at Tempelhof Air Base in West Berlin, which at the time was still entirely behind a wall, and had been the drop-site of the historic 'Berlin Airlift' at the end of WWII during the Soviet occupation of East Germany. We still rejoice in the memory of the day the Berlin Wall began to come down. The purpose of walls is to separate. In practical ways, walls can be useful and even protective. Spiritually, however, walls alienate and are destructive. The work of God's Holy Spirit involves the breaking down of walls - - - spiritually, religiously, personally. Let us pray that the world may experience a change in direction and follow the leading of God's Holy Spirit.

Have a good week!

Love and prayers,
Father Randy

Pack 7 Cub Scouts Kickoff and Registration

MESSAGE FROM FATHER RANDY: As many of our parishioners know, growing up in St. Aloysius Parish and School, one of my fondest memories is having been a Cub Scout in Pack 7 and Boy Scout in Troop 7. I especially remember our Pack's annual Pine Wood Derby. I still have my Pine Wood Derby car. It never won a race. I keep it because it reminds me of my dad, and the hours he spent with me, helping me build it.

Our St. Aloysius Cub Scout Pack 7 will hold its annual kickoff meeting on Sunday, August 27 at 1:00 PM in the "Old Gym". We will register both new and returning Cub Scouts, and will have activities for the kids while the parents learn about the planned events for the school year.

Reminder- our pack is now open to "Family Scouting", which means we are welcoming both boys and girls, grades 1 – 5, to join. By the way, your child need not be a St. Aloysius student, as we welcome any 1st - 5th graders interested in Scouting and in need of a pack. We look forward to seeing you, and especially new families, on Sunday, August 27th, at 1:00 PM

WORD OF LIFE

"God's love—individual, real, unchanging—is the true source of our worth, identity, and dignity. It really is not a question of who we are, but rather whose we are. Because his love will never change, nothing can reduce our God-given dignity, and nothing can diminish the immeasurable worth of our lives."

A Ministry for Individuals with Special Needs and Their Families

SENSORY MASS
Sunday, August 20, 2023 at 2:00 p.m.
Most Blessed Sacrament
15615 Jefferson Hwy, Baton Rouge, LA 70817
Celebrated by Fr. Todd Lloyd

In an effort to embrace and welcome the members of our Church with special needs and their families, the Diocese of Baton Rouge has begun hosting Sensory-Friendly Masses.

These Masses include lower lighting, softer music, and shorter, more literal homilies; most importantly, it provides fellowship with other parishioners on a similar journey. We encourage families and individuals to get up and move if needed, to bring alternative seating, fidgets or noise cancelling headphones, and to participate in the liturgy just as they are.

You were never meant to walk life's journey alone. Deacon Randall Waguespack 225-387-0562 x 1185 rwaguespack@diobr.org
