Our Challenge

Dear friends,

The story of the fall of Adam and Eve which we have in this weekend's first reading is a powerful parable about how we fall into the clutches of evil. We do not realize that evil creeps up on us by offering something good. The lure of pleasure and the lust for power are often the first steps toward evil and destructive experiences. Philosophers who worry about why the human race is condemned because of the sins of Adam and Eve miss the point. In our second reading this weekend from St. Paul's letter to the earliest Christian Church in Rome, it is drawing attention to the fact that lives of great evil begin with a single offense. We must not under estimate the importance of evil's first steps. In this weekend's passage from St. Matthew's gospel we hear of the temptations faced by Jesus himself. Each of the temptations of Jesus had the appearance of being a good thing. Why not turn stones into bread? Why not put God to the test? Why not gain power in the world? But these were actions that would have deflected Jesus from his God-given task. Few people intentionally set out to become criminals or addicts. They inch their way into a life of crime by petty thievery. They slip into a life of substance abuse by experimenting with drugs or alcohol. Such apparently harmless actions and practices become the first steps toward a downward path and a tragic life. The example of Jesus teaches us that we cannot live apart from temptation. The most perfect life is still confronted with opportunities to sin. But we also learn from Jesus that we can overcome temptation by the word of God. The source is anonymous, but the truth of this familiar dictum is profound: "Sow a thought, and you reap an act; Sow an act, and you reap a habit; Sow a habit, and you reap a character; Sow a character, and you reap a destiny." Small steps lead to momentous consequences for evil or for good!

Have a good week! Happy Lent!

Love and prayers,
Father Randy

St. Aloysius Habitat for Humanity

Once again St. Aloysius is participating in the Catholic Coalition Build. Through this effort a deserving family can feel the pride of homeownership (a home that they would not be able to afford except through Habitat). The volunteers and the homeowner working side by side along with an interest free loan from Habitat make the home affordable. This year's build will begin Saturday, February 4, 2023. Workdays are Wednesday and Saturday.

The scheduled St. Aloysius work dates are listed below.

Saturday, March 18

Wednesday, March 22

Saturday, April 22

Please consider continuing the St. Aloysius tradition of participation in the Catholic Coalition by working one of these scheduled workdays. Lunches are also needed. If you, or a group, are willing to provide lunches for the workers one of these days please email or call Kim .

If you have any questions or would like to volunteer or provide lunch, call Kim Boudreaux at 225-205-2870 or email boudro@aol.com (put Habitat in the subject line). There is a job for everyone on the work site.

“Our paschal lamb, Christ, has been sacrificed.” These words of St. Paul in his Letter to the Corinthians express the highest mystery of the Catholic faith, which Christians around the world contemplate and celebrate every year during the Lent and Easter seasons: the suffering, dying, and rising of Jesus.

In this year’s devotional book, The Paschal Mystery: Reflections for Lent and Easter, readers are offered a week-by-week guide through these sacred seasons with a series of reflections on Lenten themes like death, temptation, repentance, prayer, fasting, and almsgiving; the events of the Paschal Mystery of Christ recalled during Holy Week; and the joy of the Gospel reflected in the Easter season.

Featuring key passages from Scripture, hymns, poetry, prayers, and additional reflections from across two thousand years of Catholic tradition, The Paschal Mystery is a perfect companion guide for parishes, families, and individuals longing for a deeper encounter with Christ during Lent and Easter.

The books are now available in baskets by the doors of the church.
