5TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

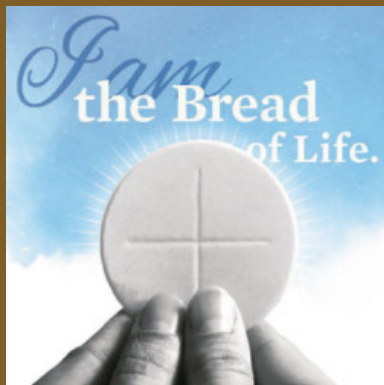

When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by demons. The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons, not permitting them to speak because they knew him. - Mk 1:32-34

Our Challenge

Dear friends:

In this weekend's first reading from the Book of Job, his story provides no simple answers to the mystery of human suffering. It is a grim example of how dark and difficult life can be when God is not a part of the picture. Job's friends blame him for his sufferings. Job's wife advises him to curse God and die. If nothing else, Job endures. In our second reading from St. Paul's first letter back to the earliest Christian Church in Corinth, Greece, he points them to the unusual nature of life in Christ. He uses himself as an example of how life is turned upside down, or how we offer ourselves freely to people in need, and of how we use the power of weakness as a way of identifying with any who are needy. In our passage from the beginning of Mark's Gospel we see Jesus avoiding the spotlight by urging those he heals to tell no one about it. It would have been easy to become known only as a healer and miracle worker. Jesus' primary purpose, however, was to proclaim the coming kingdom of God. Back in the days of the epic musical Jesus Christ, Superstar, many who loved it, kept its music alive, and made it a commercial success—but missed the point. The point has always been that, while we want a Superstar Jesus, as they did in the first century, Jesus will not cooperate. It is not enough that we are disciples of Jesus. We must follow the Jesus of the Gospels. Does the Church always follow Jesus? If the Church follows Jesus, it will be different from the world. Where Jesus said no, the Church will say no. Where Jesus said yes, the Church will say yes. When the Church is true to its Lord, it thinks differently from the world. In the world, whatever is needed to achieve a desired end is justified. Coercion, repression, deception, and violence are often used to get things done in the world. But the Church is held to a higher standard, where there is a necessary compatibility between means and ends. The Church cannot use instruments of control to achieve the goal of freedom. The Church cannot use self-centered means to achieve the goal of love.

Have a good week!

Love and prayers,
Father Randy

Stewardship through Offering

aloysius.org/offering

Our parish has already asked us to reflect on our commitments to Stewardship of Prayer and Ministry. The weekend of February 3rd and 4th begins our focus on Stewardship through Offering.

Stewardship is a way of life. It is the wise use of all that we are and have – knowing that what we are, and will become, comes from God. He has called us to be wise stewards of the gifts that He has given us.

Every day in our parish, you can see so many who have been wise stewards of their time, treasure and talent. Stewardship through offering starts, not with the needs or challenges of the parish – no matter how important these are – but with the personal need of each one of us to return to God a truly grateful portion of our treasure in thanksgiving for all His blessings.

Each of us will receive an important stewardship invitation from our faith community. During this time of reflection, we are invited to examine our financial commitment to stewardship. Am I giving proportionately? Do I reflect on what percentage of my income I plan to return to the Lord? These are some of the important questions that we should ask ourselves.

Please take time to prayerfully discern your Stewardship through Offering Commitment for 2024, and join us for our Annual Stewardship through Offering Weekend at the celebration of the Holy Mass this weekend.

This year's Total Stewardship theme is from John 15:4, "Remain in Me as I remain in you." We naturally become one with Jesus by showing love for one another through the Stewardship efforts of prayer, ministry, and offering. Visit us at <https://www.aloysius.org/offering> to learn more about the importance of stewardship in our faith community and in your own faith journey.

CATHOLIC DIOCESE
of
BATON ROUGE
Office of the Bishop

23 January 2024

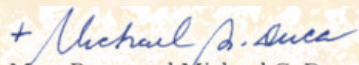

To the Lay Faithful of the Diocese of Baton Rouge:

The annual retreat for priests of the Diocese of Baton Rouge will be 05-08 February 2024 at Manresa House of Retreats in Convent. These days of prayer and contemplation represent an important occasion for their renewal and growth in spiritual formation and well-being. As such, participation by our active priests is mandatory.

Thus, their temporary absence during this period of retreat will affect certain regular pastoral ministries. In particular, the schedule of weekday Masses and possible times for funeral Masses may be impacted and adjusted in your parish to meet needs of our priests during this time of renewal. While I recognize that this is a sacrifice, I consider this a sacrifice worth making. Deacons can provide needed funeral rites (the Wake Service, a Funeral without Mass, and the Rite of Committal). If the local parish staff is unable to secure a deacon for funeral needs, the parish staff may call the Office of the Vicar General by dialing 225.387.0561 for further assistance.

Thank you for understanding and supporting our priests with their ongoing formation and renewal for ministry! Please pray for our priests and our diocese during these days. I appreciate your affirmation and encouragement of our priests who give their lives for our diocese. May God be generous in leading us into a future filled with hope.

Hope in the Lord,

Most Reverend Michael G. Duca
Bishop of Baton Rouge

St. Joseph's Day March 18-19, 2024

We are excited for the return of the St. Joseph's Day Altar to St. Aloysius! The Altar is a celebrated Sicilian tradition that was brought to Louisiana over 100 years ago to honor and recognize St. Joseph. Members of the Parish contribute baked goods, flowers, statues and pictures of loved ones to be placed on the Altar for viewing. It is a community event centered around St. Joseph, family, friends and fellowship.

The St. Joseph's Day Altar includes floral displays which are donated in memory of loved ones who have passed. If you would like to contribute a floral display in memory of a loved one, please email AloysiusSJDA@gmail.com.

St. Aloysius Habitat for Humanity

Once again St. Aloysius is participating in the Catholic Coalition Build. Through this effort a deserving family can feel the pride of homeownership (a home that they would not be able to afford except through Habitat). The volunteers and the homeowner working side by side along with an interest free loan from Habitat make the home affordable.

This year's build began Saturday, January 27, 2024. Workdays are Wednesday and Saturday. The scheduled St. Aloysius work dates are listed below. Please consider continuing the St. Aloysius' tradition of participation in the Catholic Coalition by working one of these scheduled workdays.

If you have any questions or would like to volunteer, call Kim Boudreaux at 225-205-2870 or boudro@aol.com (put Habitat in the subject line).

There is a job for everyone on the work site.
