Our Challenge

Dear friends:

The verses of our Old Testament passage this weekend from the Book of Exodus support Jesus' own contention that all of God's laws are based on love of God and love of neighbor. The Israelites were not to oppress the foreigner, not to ignore the needs of widows and orphans, and not to take advantage of the poor. God hears the cries of the oppressed and opposes the sins of the oppressors. The Apostle Paul commends the earliest Christians at Thessalonika, Greece, for becoming a model for all believers. Faith in God is to be demonstrated in a way of life. These earliest Christians were more servants than masters. Their reputation extended far and wide, and their manner of life and service was a "sounding forth" of the word of the Lord. This weekend's gospel passage rings with clarity! Jesus leaves no doubt concerning the true nature of religious faith. The rules and rituals of religion can be summarized in two simple commandments. First, we are to love God with all our hearts, souls, and minds. Second, we are to love our neighbor as we love ourselves. Obedience to these two commandments fulfills the will of God for every human being. Since we have had them so long, and since they have never been particularly controversial, it is a little surprising that the Ten Commandments have been in the news in recent years. The issue, of course, is not so much the Ten Commandments themselves as where it is appropriate, even legal, to display these ancient verses. It is important in every age to remember that God's laws are guidelines for living, not merely objects of veneration. "Love" is a word with which we play fast and loose. To love God and other people as Jesus did is the most difficult thing in the world. There is always more life in relationships than in rules. The two-part "greatest" commandment points to the kind of relationship God wants with us. Not a legal relationship, where we have to constantly prove ourselves worthy. Not a formal relationship, where conditions being met are more important than intimacy. God loves us as we are, and God wants to be our loved One, our merciful Father, our dearest friend.

Have a good week!

Love and prayers,
Father Randy

November Remembrance of the Dead

Pray with us as we remember all those who have died.
At St. Aloysius, we will remember the dead in the following ways:

- A Bereavement Cross has been placed near the Tabernacle in the church for those buried from St. Aloysius Parish in the past year. On November 1, family members who attend the Bereavement Dinner will be given the cross of their loved one during the dinner. You may also pick up the cross from tables located near the Tabernacle. If you are unable to pick up your loved one's cross, please call the church office and the cross will be mailed to you.
- Digital Book of Remembrance has been created on our website <https://www.aloysius.org/remembrance>. You may add the names of any of your deceased loved ones to this online book so that our parishioners may remember all those who have died. There will also be a Book of Remembrance in the Church where you may write the names of your deceased loved ones. This physical book will be in the Tabernacle area of the Church.
- We do accept Mass Intentions for the dead for our regular daily and Sunday Masses. We also accept Altar Flower Memorials for those who have died. See the parish website for more information: <https://www.aloysius.org/mass-intentions-and-memorials>

Silver Rose Prayer Service

All members of the community are encouraged to join our Knights of Columbus Council 3743 at St. Aloysius Catholic Church on Monday, November 6, 2023 at 5:30 PM for a Rosary Prayer Service. Make plans for you and your family to attend.

The journey of the silver rose begins each year in March and ends December 12, the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Every stop the Silver Rose makes throughout the pilgrimage is a Rosary-centered occasion for Knights, parishioners and community members to pray for respect for life. The Silver Rose program demonstrates the unity between Knights of Columbus in Canada, the United States and Mexico, through a series of prayer services promoting the dignity of all human life and honoring Our Lady.

The Silver Rose Program began in 1960, when the first rose – a real, live one – was blessed by a bishop in Ontario. The rose then traveled to New York and then to Texas where it was taken across the border into Mexico. The rose ended its pilgrimage at the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Monterrey on Dec. 12, the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. To better ensure future annual trips, a silver rose was ultimately made. Today, due to the popularity of the program throughout the North American continent, eight silver roses travel unique routes. Contact John Waitz for any questions.

Mass on the Fairgrounds Sunday, October 29, 2023

Fr. Randy and Fr. Nutan will celebrate the 9:00 AM Mass on the fairgrounds this Sunday. There will not be a 9:00 AM Mass in the church on this day. You are encouraged to bring your own lawn chairs and blankets for seating around the outdoor altar. Some chairs will be available for those without chairs. Please join us after Mass for music from the LSU Gospel Choir and brunch!

In case of rain, this Mass will be celebrated in the church.

Join the Knights of Columbus

We would love to have you join our brotherhood. Please come and pray a Rosary and share a meal with us, which we do every third Wednesday of the month at 6:00 PM in the KC Hall at St. Aloysius. Prayer for Peace in Israel & Middle East

O GOD,

WE REMEMBER THOSE WHO LIVE IN THE HOLY LAND
NOW CAUGHT UP IN THE DISASTROUS EVIL OF WAR.
WE PRAY FOR OUR SISTERS AND BROTHERS BOTH OF ISRAEL
AND THE PALESTINIAN PEOPLE WHO ARE SUFFERING:
FOR THOSE WHO HAVE DIED VICTIMS OF VIOLENCE;
FOR THOSE HELD CAPTIVE AND ARE FEARED LOST TO THEIR FAMILIES;
FOR THOSE GRIEVOUSLY WOUNDED BY BULLETS AND BOMBS;
FOR THOSE WHO HAVE LOST HOPE IN A PEACEFUL LIFE.

WE HAVE IN OUR DAY, O LORD, NO ONE ELSE TO TURN TO BUT YOU.

IT IS THROUGH YOUR POWER THAT HATRED IS OVERCOME BY LOVE, VENGEANCE GIVES WAY TO FORGIVENESS,
AND DISCORD IS CHANGED TO MUTUAL RESPECT.
FOR CHRIST ALONE WHOSE BLOOD WAS SHED CAN CURE THE FEVER IN OUR BLOOD.

DO AGAIN FOR US WHAT YOU HAVE DONE IN THE PAST
SO THAT THROUGH YOUR MERCIFUL GRACE,
YOUR PEACE MAY PUT AN END TO CONFLICT AND DIVISION
IN THAT FAR AWAY LAND OF ISRAEL, IN OUR NEIGHBORHOODS, AND IN OUR OWN HEARTS.

GLORY TO THE FATHER AND TO THE SON AND TO THE HOLY SPIRIT,
AS IT WAS IN THE BEGINNING, IS NOW, AND WILL BE FOREVER. AMEN.

Eucharistic Miracle

Kerala, India
Nov. 15th, 2013

In 2013, Jesus' Face appeared on the Host Fr. Thomas Pathickal had just consecrated during morning Mass.

This occurred a few days after anti Catholic pamphlets mocking the Eucharist were distributed locally.

The Host was sent to Rome for scientific evaluation.

The Host can still be seen at Christ the King in Kerala, India.

O Lord, show us Thy Face, and we shall be saved!

WORD OF LIFE

“Hope is always possible. To those who care for the sick, the scene of the Cross provides a way of understanding that even when it seems that there is nothing more to do there remains much to do, because ‘remaining’ by the side of the sick is a sign of love and of the hope that it contains. Healed by Jesus, we become men and women called to proclaim his healing power and provide care for our neighbors, until the very end.”

MOTHER TERESA'S MESSAGE TO A UNITED NATIONS
WOMEN'S CONFERENCE 1995

(St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta was a woman—and perhaps prophetess---ahead of her time - Fr. Randy)

I am praying for God's blessing on all who are taking part in the Fourth World Conference on Women in Beijing. I hope that this Conference will help everyone to know, love, and respect the special place of women in God's plan so that they may fulfill this plan in their lives.

I do not understand why some people are saying that women and men are exactly the same, and are denying the beautiful differences between men and women. All God's gifts are good, but they are not all the same. As I often say to people who tell me that they would like to serve the poor as I do, "What I can do, you cannot. What you can do, I cannot. But together we can do something beautiful for God." It is just this way with the differences between women and men.

God has created each one of us, every human being, for greater things-- to love and to be loved. But why did God make some of us men and others women? Because a woman's love is one image of the love of God, and a man's love is another image of God's love. Both are created to love, but each in a different way. Woman and man complete each other, and together show forth God's love more fully than either can do it alone.

That special power of loving that belongs to a woman is seen most clearly when she becomes a mother. Motherhood is the gift of God to women. How grateful we must be to God for this wonderful gift that brings such joy to the whole world, women and men alike! Yet we can destroy this gift of motherhood, especially by the evil of abortion, but also by thinking that other things like jobs or positions are more important than loving, than giving oneself to others. No job, no plans, no possessions, no idea of "freedom" can take the place of love. So anything that destroys God's gift of motherhood destroys His most precious gift to women-- the ability to love as a woman.

God told us, "Love your neighbor as yourself." So first I am to love myself rightly, and then to love my neighbor like that. But how can I love myself unless I accept myself as God has made me? Those who deny the beautiful differences between men and women are not accepting themselves as God has made them, and so cannot love the neighbor. They will only bring division, unhappiness, and destruction of peace to the world. For example, as I have often said, abortion is the greatest destroyer of peace in the world today, and those who want to make women and men the same are all in favor of abortion.

Instead of death and sorrow, let us bring peace and joy to the world. To do this we must beg God for His gift of peace and learn to love and accept each other as brothers and sisters, children of God. We know that the best place for children to learn how to love and to pray is in the family, by seeing the love and prayer of their mother and father. When families are broken or disunited, many children grow up not knowing how to love and pray. A country where many families have been destroyed like this will have many problems. I have often seen, especially in the rich countries, how children turn to drugs or other things to escape feeling unloved and rejected.

But when families are strong and united, children can see God's special love in the love of their father and mother and can grow to make their country a loving and prayerful place. The child is God's best gift to the family and needs both mother and father because each one shows God's love in a special way. The family that prays together stays together, and if they stay together they will love one another as God has loved each one of them. And works of love are always works of peace.

So let us keep the joy of loving in our hearts and share this joy with all we meet. My prayer for all of the delegates, and for every woman whom the Beijing Conference is trying to help, is that each one may be humble and pure like Mary so as to live in love and peace with one another and make our families and our world something beautiful for God.

Let us pray. All for the Glory of God. God Bless You, Mother Teresa, MC
