Our Challenge

Dear friends:

In this weekend's Old Testament reading, the prophet Isaiah gives us a "good news" – "bad news" image. A man made a perfect vineyard. He cleared the fields, planted the vines, built a tower, and dug a wine press. But the vines were wild and produced bitter fruit. We may have all the signs of success, but if our lives produce bitter fruit we are failures. Our second reading this weekend from St. Paul's letter to the earliest Christians in Philippi, Greece, reflects that St. Paul knew that the key to finding peace is having the right attitude. Our minds should be directed toward lofty, virtuous, and praiseworthy things. The person who is devoted to what is honorable, just, pure, lovely, and gracious, will be a successful human being and child of God. Jesus told the parable we hear in this weekend's gospel passage to emphasize the importance of being good stewards of whatever God has put in our hands. Success is based on making the best use of what we have to benefit the kingdom of God. Inevitably we will lose those things we try to keep or invest only in ourselves. In a caste or class system, people know their places, and are expected to accept them. In a class-less society, theoretically, the sky is the limit. In creation, however, there is a simple, unchanging distinction between Creator and creature. As human creatures, many things are possible for us, but we cannot usurp the place of God the Creator. Followers of Christ are intended to demonstrate a distinctive quality of life in the world, a quality of life that defines fulfillment differently than the world. Identity issues are a part of growing up. There are many aspects of a person's identity. We all have a family identity first, and this becomes the foundation for other discoveries about ourselves. Spiritually and theologically, each of us is a child of God and a follower of Jesus Christ. In the most comprehensive sense, however, we are God's care-takers of creation. This was the vocation given to Adam and Eve. We seem to be just on the verge of understanding what all this means.

Have a good week!

Love and prayers,
Father Randy

Is Stephen Ministry Calling You?

"A Steady Reminder of God's Presence," remarks a woman tells how having a Stephen Minister during a family crisis gave her a spiritual anchor and the opportunity to focus on her own needs.

This story and many others like this are shared by care receivers voluntarily on the Stephen Ministry website www.stephenministries.org and describes how Stephen Ministry makes a difference in the lives of those who needed this ministry in their communities. Launched in 1975 and headquartered in St. Louis, Missouri, Stephen Ministry now serves 13,000 congregations worldwide, of which St. Aloysius Parish is included. Stephen Ministry is a lay ministry that supplements pastoral care. Trained members provide one-on-one confidential, Christ-centered care to individuals facing a variety of life struggles and transitions, such as grief, chronic illness, job loss, divorce, cancer, or financial difficulties.

Perhaps you are hearing the call to follow God's promises for you by serving as a Stephen Minister. Yes, Stephen Ministry is a time commitment – training hours and visiting care receivers – but you will reap great dividends in the form of graces and blessings through the experiences. The required 50-hour training course January and includes the following dates: January 4th, 11th, 18th, 25th; February 1st, 8th, 22nd, 29th; March 7th, 14th, 21st; and April 4th, 11th. A Commissioning Ceremony is held during Mass after the program ends.

After you discern if this ministry is calling you, and if you have any further questions, please contact us through our confidential email stephen.ministry.aloysiusbr@gmail.com or call/text any of the following Stephen Ministry Leaders: Kathy Nikolaus, 225-603-7772; Ann McCrory, 225-235-7850; Bob Schoen, 225-937-2984; Stephanie Anderson Songy, 225-802-2020 or Dana Territo, 225-572-9250. www.aloysius.org/social-responsibility

Additionally, if you are in need of a Stephen Minister, or know someone who would benefit, please contact Ann McCrory, Stephen Ministry Leader, at the ministry email above or text/phone her at 225-235-7850. Again, this care is entirely confidential—no one knows the identity of a care receiver except for their Stephen Minister and the referral person or Stephen Leader who paired them together.

WORD OF LIFE

"An old Irish proverb says, 'It is in the shelter of each other that the people live.' Indeed, we are created to depend upon one another and walk together in suffering. But when family members or friends approach life's end, we may not know how best to 'shelter' them. Here are some concrete ways we can compassionately care for them: usccb.org/end-of-life-care."
