St. Aloysius' Don Allison to serve parish as deacon

By Father Randy Cuevas

Bishop Duca has assigned Don Allison to augment our St. Aloysius clergy after his upcoming ordination to the Permanent Diaconate in August. Don, a native of Pineville, is a graduate of the University of Louisiana at Monroe.

He and his wife of 41 years, Beth, a native of New Iberia, have lived in Baton Rouge all of their married life, and have been parishioners at St. Aloysius for the past five years. They have three daughters, two sons-in-law and three grandsons.

Their daughter Ashley Bugea, her husband John, and their three sons are parishioners at St. Aloysius. The three sons, Charlie, John Luke and Thomas have completed eighth grade, seventh grade and third grade, respectively, at St. Aloysius School. Don and Beth's daughter Amber lives in McMinnville, Ore. Their daughter Aubrey and her husband Adam Waggenspack live in New Orleans.

Don, who was not Catholic growing up, went through the RCIA process in 1983-84. After a 40-plus-year career as a CPA, business consultant and governmental affairs professional, Don retired in August 2019. In 2017, Don felt a calling to explore the diaconate and the process of becoming a deacon.

After doing so, Don decided to take the next step and entered the diaconate formation program in the summer of 2018. Don has now completed the five-year diaconate formation program, and will be ordained by Bishop Duca at 10 A.M., on Saturday, Aug. 12, at St. Joseph Cathedral.

His assignment as deacon assistant at St. Aloysius will be effective on Monday, Aug. 14. Additionally, his assigned Ministry of Charity will be to serve the needs of prisoners throughout the diocese of Baton Rouge.

We heartily welcome Deacon Don to our St. Aloysius Church staff, and look forward to his ministry among us, along with the continued ministry of Deacon Chauvin, who has been assigned to St. Aloysius since 2013.

First Eucharist

First Eucharist was celebrated during the 4:30 Vigil, 9 AM, 11 AM and 5:30 PM Masses on May 6 and 7. A total of 129 First Communicants received the Sacrament. Many thanks to the retreat catechists, SJA and CHS student volunteers who helped prepare the children, and the children's families for this special occasion. We would especially like to acknowledge Father Randy Cuevas, Father Nutan Minj, Ken Thevenet, Edie Boudreaux, Jo Gomez, Erin Rice, Caroline Leblanc, Patience Appleton, Tyler Waggenspack, Jan Hinson, Susan Andries, Kay Hoffpauir, John Ballance, and the ushers and musicians who helped make it a special event for the children. # Ministry Appreciation

Our annual Ministry Appreciation Dinner was held Thursday, April 27, in the Old Gym. The event is a way to say “thank you” to all the parishioners who were involved in Stewardship through Ministry for the 2022-2023 year. Items on the menu included boiled shrimp, potatoes, corn on the cob, sausage, hamburgers, hotdogs, and desserts! Fathers Randy and Nutan were the grill masters, and the parish staff served the food!

Holy Land Pilgrimage

Marie Hebert, Pat Veazey, Father Louie Richard, and Chery and Gary Hiebert recently took part in an incredible Holy Land Pilgrimage. The pilgrimage was organized through Magnificat Travel of Lafayette and guided by Father Richard, of St. Mary Magdalen Parish in Abbeville. The Bible became alive as the group walked the footsteps of Jesus. Especially memorable was the Way of the Cross walked on the Via Dolorosa to Calvary at 4:30 a.m. The spiritual journey, especially during Lent, was an incredible preparation for celebrating the glory of Easter Sunday.

Baby Bottle Campaign 2023 benefits two worthy centers

Thanks to the generosity of St. Aloysius parishioners, $7,414 was recently issued in two checks to the Pregnancy Problem Center and Women’s New Life Clinic in Baton Rouge. Together, we collected nearly $15,000!

Gratitude also goes to the Knights of Columbus Council 3743 and the Dignity of Life Committee of St. Aloysius for their hours of dedication handing out bottles and collecting and counting the donations.

These two centers have been giving women in crisis pregnancies an alternative to abortion for many years by saving many babies and their mothers from such a nightmare. Both offer free pregnancy tests and ultrasound machines so mothers can see their babies in their womb.

The PPC has a “Mom and Me Shop” to clothe and feed moms and babies, and also offers a “Earn to Learn program,” which helps moms and dads become better parents with healthier babies. The Woman’s New Life Center gives professional counseling, educational resources and post-abortion counseling. They also teach natural family planning.

The cost of running a center is expensive, but you cannot put a price tag on the lives and souls saved. Thanks again and God bless you for your generosity.

Stephen Ministry commissions ministers for Christ-centered care

“They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of bread and to the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles.” (Acts 2: 42-47)

The words in this first reading from the Acts of the Apostles on the Second Sunday of Easter, or Divine Mercy Sunday, illustrates the work of the Stephen Ministry members. As Father Nutan delivered his homily and recognized the new Stephen Ministry members—to be commissioned, he explained that like the apostles, the members bring Christ-centered care to people experiencing life’s difficulties, losses and transitions; sharing in the “communal life” of the parish and bringing such devotion, as did the apostles, to the people of whom they minister.

Four new members who completed 50 hours of training were welcomed and commissioned after the homily: Ann McCrory (Stephen Ministry leader), and Janet Carroll, Stephanie Anderson Songy and Tina Power Cushman (Stephen Ministry new members). The fifth new member, Carolyn Thornton, could not attend because of illness. Father Nutan led prayers over the new members in addition to offering a special blessing upon them.

Stephen Ministry, a worldwide ministry established in 1975, offers a proven and effective way to organize, equip, and supervise a team of congregation members—called Stephen Ministers—to provide high-quality, one-to-one, Christ-centered care to people in the congregation and the community experiencing life difficulties.

St. Aloysius Church currently has an active Stephen Ministry whose members provide Christian care to those who are experiencing grief, loneliness, terminal illness and other life difficulties. Everything discussed with the care receivers, even their identity, is confidential.

Stephen Ministers come from all walks of life and share a passion for bringing Christ’s love and care to people during a time of need, and they receive extensive Christian care training and meet monthly for confidential supervision. As Stephen Leaders emphasize in training sessions, “Stephen Ministers provide the care and God provides the cure.”

If you sense God is asking you to follow him and serve in this ministry, or if you or someone you know could benefit from this caring ministry, please contact a Stephen Leader, or call the St. Aloysius church office at 343-6657; or contact Stephen Leaders: Kathy Nikolaus, knikolaus@cox.net or 225-603-7772; Ann McCrory, mccroryannb@gmail.com (225) 235-7850; Bob Schoen, bobschoen18@gmail.com or 225-937-2984, or Dana Territo, territo4@yahoo.com, or 225-572-9250.

You do not have to be a parishioner of St. Aloysius to join this ministry.

Annual Golf Classic

Twenty-eight teams consisting of four men each took part in the annual St. Aloysius Parish Golf Classic on March 13 at The University Club Golf Course. This annual event promotes fellowship through friendly competition and raises funds for the goals of the master plan. Thank you to all sponsors, donors, participants and volunteers who made the event possible.

St. Aloysius to join in Eucharistic Revival

In June 2022, on the Solemnity of The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi), the U.S. Council of Catholic Bishops launched a three-year National Eucharistic Revival to respond to Christ’s call for us to unite around the source and summit of our faith: the celebration of the Holy Eucharist.

The first year of the Revival focused on local dioceses and invited diocesan staff, bishops, and priests to respond to the Lord’s personal invitation and equipped them to share this love with the faithful through eucharistic congresses and events.

The second phase of the National Eucharistic Revival, beginning Sunday, June 11, the Feast of Corpus Christi, will focus on fostering devotion at the parish level.

In the coming year at St. Aloysius, we will strengthen our liturgical life through faithful celebration of the Mass, Eucharistic Adoration, resources, preaching and organic movements of the Holy Spirit.

Specific plans in our parish include once-monthly Tuesday evening Eucharistic Adoration with reverent music, the distribution of copies of Bishop Robert Barron’s “This is My Body,” a fall Eucharist study entitled “Jesus and the Eucharist” and speakers on the Real Presence. This promises to be a wonderful holy year!

Summer Choir at St. Aloysius open to new members

During the months of June, July and August, a “Summer Choir” will provide liturgical music at the 11 AM Sunday Mass. This more informal choir will only rehearse in the hour before the Mass in the Convent Choir Room. Both new singers and past choir members are invited. Sopranos, altos, tenors, and basses of all ages are needed and welcome to attend. This is an opportunity to sing with the choir without having to commit to mid-week rehearsals. Share your musical gifts in the Music Ministry at St. Aloysius Church by contacting Ken Thevenet, kthevenet@staloyusparish.com, 225-343-6657, Ext. 20.

Class of 2023 leaves legacy of leadership, Christian values

The eighth-graders of St. Aloysius School celebrated their last year as Lions with their Closing Ceremony Mass on Wednesday, May 17.

As the students excitedly assembled in the Parish Hall before the ceremony, photographer John Ballance gathered the group for their final photos as SAS students. Sixth- and seventh-grade siblings of the graduates provided service as ushers and door holders to welcome guests.

The Mass began with the procession of eighth-graders into the church. John William Bradford and Andy St. Germain led the procession, carrying white Easter banners. Clayton Fontenot carried the cross in the liturgical procession.

Mass proceeded with Mary Frances Lemann, Lucca Hyfield, Mary Clement Bourgeois and Lily Melancon proclaiming the readings. Members of the Performance Choir provided musical leadership for the ceremony. The altar was set by Kate Funes, Harrison Bergeon and Hudson Peters. Luca Boneo, Kennan Ann Carville, Ladd Vigeur and Lily Comeaux brought the gifts forward and presented them to Father Randy.

Following Holy Communion, Mrs. Erin Candilora, principal, addressed the students, commenting on their outstanding traits of leadership, kindness and Christian attitude. Their academic achievements were evident by the 46 Honor Graduates who finished the school year with an "A" average. Following the presentation of certificates to the 105 graduates, individual awards were presented to the students.

Each year in the Diocese of Baton Rouge, every school is given the opportunity to nominate a Student of the Year. Based on academics, extra-curricular activities, volunteer efforts, voting by his peers and overall Christian attitude, Clayton Fontenot was chosen as the St. Aloysius School Student of the Year. The Faculty Award is presented to the eighth-grade student who, through hard work and dedication, has earned the highest grade-point average for the entire eighth-grade year. This year's recipient was Andrew Ferachi.

The Daughters of Jesus Excellence Award is given to honor our beloved Sisters, the Daughters of Jesus, and is properly named because it is presented to a student whose dedication to excellence is shown by the hard work he or she does, not only in academics, but also in other school and non-school related activities. The 2022-2023 Daughters of Jesus Excellence Award was presented to Sofia Carreras.

The Monsignor Daniel Becnel Award is awarded annually to the eighth-grade student who, in the opinion of the faculty, best represents what a SAS student should aspire to be. This year's Monsignor Becnel Award recipient has demonstrated these qualities in a consistent manner throughout the school year. We were pleased and proud to present the 2022-2023 Outstanding Graduate, Monsignor Becnel Award to Brady Foreman.

Other awards were presented to eighth-graders at either morning assembly, their last All School Mass, or graduation breakfast.

St. Aloysius School celebrates May Crowning

On May 1, St. Aloysius School held a special celebration. Mrs. Lee Goebel's fourth-grade home-room, with the support of Ms. Beth Bordelon, music teacher and Ms. Nicole Wintz, fourth-grade religion teacher, hosted a May Crowning Prayer Service for the entire school.

As students entered the gym that morning, they placed flowers in the collection containers at the front of the old gym. Members of the Spirit of Service club arranged the flowers to decorate the stage for the service. Fourth-grader Brandin Burris provided a prelude as the assembly gathered.

As part of the ceremony, the school honored Mrs. Debra Bennett (Kindergarten teacher) and Mrs. Alcia Plaisance (receptionist) who retired at the conclusion of this school year. At the start of the service, these ladies crowned a statue of the Blessed Mother to the song "Immaculate Mary."

Following the crowning of Mary, the fourth-graders enacted each of the Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary. After each tableau,

Mrs. Debra Bennett and Mrs. Alcia Plaisance

all joined in reciting the "Hail, Mary." Following these prayers, Mrs. Wintz, accompanied by Beth Bordelon, sang "Mother's Song," a reflection on the events of the life of Jesus as seen through the eyes of his mother.

To conclude the service, the fourth-graders led the assembly in "I Sing a Maid." It was a beautiful conclusion to a special celebration honoring our mother, Mary. It was also a special way to honor Debra Bennett and Alcia Plaisance and to thank them for their years of service to St. Aloysius School.

school year. Their parting gift to the school was a four-square court on the pavement near the new gym. Clayton loved to play four-square at recess and now many more students will be able to participate in his favorite game.

A memorial plaque will also be hung in his memory. It will read "In loving memory of our friend, Clayton Aguillard. Be Kind. Donated by the 2023 8th Grade Class".

4th-graders sell lemonade for Operation Rice Bowl

When Grace Patton's teacher explained the Lenten Rice Bowl collection, an idea popped into Grace's head. She wanted to operate a lemonade stand with the proceeds going to Catholic Relief Services.

In her previous experiences, her lemonade stands raised about $40, but Grace wanted to do more for people in need. She knew for a successful stand, she would need help from friends. That's when Grace invited friends and school-mates Olivia Landry and Anne Louise Istre to assist.

The busy neighborhood of Riverbend was the site of the lemonade stand. The girls created banners to decorate it. They staged a tent, added a table and cloth, and put up the banners and posters. One poster read "All money goes to the CRS Rice Bowl." News of the stand was posted on the Nextdoor App and the parents also texted friends and family.

The girls said many generous people stopped by the stand. Some customers were familiar to the girls, such as a classmate's grandmother and the school's receptionist. One teenage girl bought 20 bags of cookies and one lemonade. Many people also bought items and told the girls to "keep the change." At the end of the two-hour sale, the girls had run out of cookies and only had about five cups of lemonade left. When they counted their sales, the total was $341!

Grace said her motivation was to help get the word out about the good work done by Catholic Relief Services. "They donate to help people in poor countries," she said. In addition, 25 percent of money collected by Operation Rice Bowl stays within the local community. Grace, Olivia and Anne Louise are interested in continuing to raise money for this annual collection.

Their donation was added to the other generous contributions from St. Aloysius School parents and students. The total donated to Catholic Relief Services was $3,288.28. This money will help people around the world, as well as people in our Baton Rouge community.

Child Care Center Spring Events

SACCC Fish Fry

The St. Aloysius Child Care Center's annual fish fry fundraiser was held on March 31. The event featured not only food, but music, a balloon artist, face painting and a 50/50 raffle. Thanks to the countless volunteers and sponsors who made the event successful.

SACCC Garden

Children at the Child Care Center place fruit and vegetable plants in their newly developed garden with the help of SAS seventh-graders. The garden was built in time for the children to plant right before Earth Day on April 22. The garden was made possible thanks to the support of Crystal Besse, Louisiana Farm to School program director for the LSU AgCenter (and an SACCC parent); Kiki Fontenot (LSU AgCenter), Carolyn Murphy (SAS), Ronnie Haliburton (facilities manager), and countless others.

SAS families serve Greater BR Food Bank

St. Aloysius School has maintained a close working relationship with the Greater Baton Rouge Food Bank for more than 30 years. At every All School Mass, the students and faculty donate food. This school year, there were also three special drives.

In November, the cheerleaders hosted a collection for holiday foods; in February, the seventh-graders held a drive for cereal and milk products; and in April, the fifth-graders collected jars of peanut butter and jelly. Donations for the 2022-23 school year totaled 10,189 pounds, which is enough food to provide 8,491 meals.

Following the peanut-butter-and-jelly collection on April 29, volunteer parents and students gathered at the Food Bank to sort and package food donations. The students worked hard to organize food so that it could be efficiently shared with those in need. We hope that this will be the first of many family service opportunities.

Rites of Full Communion held at the Easter Vigil

St. Aloysius Parish joyfully welcomed four Candidates for Full Communion at the Great Vigil of Easter on Saturday evening, April 8. Clinton Bize, Emily Lindig, William Sanders and Martin Setliff made a Profession of Faith, were anointed with Sacred Chrism in the Sacrament of Confirmation and received their First Communion in the Catholic Church. These Rites are the culmination of months of preparation and discernment through our year-round RCIA ministry. If you are interested in learning more about the Catholic Faith, exploring full communion with the Catholic Church, or interested in serving as a sponsor for one of our Catechumens or candidates, contact Mark Christian at mchristian@staloyiusparish.com
