

Elise Moran

Elise, a lifelong resident of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, has dedicated her career to serving her community through the Catholic Church. Her journey began at St. Louis King of France Elementary School, where she developed a strong foundation in faith. She continued her education at St. Michael the Archangel High School, graduating in 2004.

Following high school, Elise's commitment to her faith led her to volunteer in ministry at her home parish. This experience ignited a passion for serving others, which ultimately led to an employment opportunity within the Diocese of Baton Rouge.

For nearly two decades, Elise has served the Diocese in various roles. She has gained valuable experience and knowledge through her work, contributing significantly to the mission of the Church. In the Fall of 2017, Elise joined the staff at St. Thomas More Church, where she worked under the guidance of Fr. Michael Alello for the last seven years.

Now, Elise is excited to join the team at St. Aloysius Church. She will be taking on the important roles of Director of Ministries and Executive Assistant to the Pastor. Elise's extensive experience and dedication to her faith makes her a valuable asset to the St. Aloysius community.
